Third Sunday of Easter Sunday 19th April 2026

10am Sung Eucharist
Fr Stewart Turner

Collect:

Almighty Father,
who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples with the sight of the risen Lord: give us such knowledge of his presence with us, that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life and serve you continually in righteousness and truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?"

Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him."

And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation."

So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

The Gospel according to Luke

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened.

While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad.

Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?"

He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him."

But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place.

Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive.

Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him."

Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?"

Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them.

When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight.

They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?"

That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!"

Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Post Communion Prayer

Living God,
your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in all his redeeming work; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

Heavenly Father, we lift to You the people of Ukraine and Russia, their nations and leaders. As the God who provides, may Your help and mercy reach all who suffer. Amid the pain and conflict in the Middle East, guide the region's leaders and turn their hearts toward justice and peace.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: ALL THOSE WORKING IN THE DEANERIES

Dear Lord,
we pray for all working in our deaneries, especially those of us in deanery administrator roles. We give thanks for all who give gentle words of encouragement, please help us to encourage others. We give thanks for the new friendships formed, and new friends we are yet to meet. We pray for the diocesan meetings planned for Deanery Administrators, and ask all of us, each bringing different gifts, enjoy and grow from sharing challenges and successes. Inservi Deo et Laetare, serve God and be joyful, Amen.

Prayer by Helen Uglow, Deanery Implementation Team Secretary

Anglican Communion:

3rd Sunday of Easter - The Church of the Province of Myanmar (Burma)

Prayers for 3rd Sunday after Easter

Let us pray to the Father through the Son who is close to us always.

As the risen Christ made known in the breaking of bread, give grace to all Christian people through the holy communion of his Body and Blood...Forgive our failures of devotion when we come to his Table.

Open the eyes of those who do not understand that Christ is near to them...May the truth of his sacrifice for men and women everywhere be known in all the world.

Guide us to discern Christ in all our lives, in our friends and colleagues, in those that we find difficult to love...Inspire us to share the good news of the Resurrection.

Have mercy on those whose days on earth are so cast down by sorrow that they cannot feel the divine love...We pray for those suffering in mind, body or spirit especially...
Michael Newman, Sharron Simcock, Joan Wood, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Billy Power and young Lilly.
Lighten their darkness with the light of the new life in Christ

Abide with those whose days on earth are spent and who now rest in Christ...
We remember:
Edith Stevens (19th), Hilary Hodge (21st), Kenneth Clook, Earnest Ray (22nd), Annie Perkins (23rd), Joyce Dash (24th), Nancy Blamey (25th), Grant to all who have walked with him the fullness of his presence.

That our eyes may be opened and our hearts warmed with faith, we offer our prayers.
