WELL DONE, BEN!!

YOU DID IT!

Ben walked all 12k for the Farleigh Hospice Walk for Life and has so far raised over £1500! He would like to say a huge thank you to everyone for their support and donations. He was very proud to honour Jan Jones' memory by wearing her Farleigh lanyard for the walk. Jan worked in the Witham Farleigh shop for 10yrs. The picture shows Ben with Liz's very good friend Alison and dog Polly, who both walked with him. Sponsor monies can still be left at the Vicarage or donated directly to Farleigh.

TEDDY GOES TO SCHOOL... BY SARAH OPENSHAW

The Revd Christine Newmarch and her trained therapy dog Teddy are now making visits to Kelvedon St Mary's Primary Academy. They help those children who find going into school very difficult. It is hoped that knowing Teddy is coming in will be an incentive for children to want to go to school and for other children to be aware of the school's link with St Mary's Church.

Thank you Christine & a big Well Done bone for Teddy!
