Benefice June 2026

Dear friends,

There is something very unique about walking through the doors of a church. We leave behind the noise, pressure, uncertainty, and the endless demands of life, and inside, there is often a sense that we have entered a different space altogether. A sacred space where hearts can slow down and our souls can breathe again.

Church buildings are not simply bricks, stone, wood, and glass. They are places that have for centuries been soaked in prayer. For generations people have come through the doors bringing their grief, their joys, fears, gratitude, confusion, and hopes. The prayers whispered over centuries seem almost to linger in the walls themselves. Maybe you too have felt that special peace as you step inside, and especially when the church is empty and silent. We are blessed to be able to open three of our churches each day and will continue to enable that.

Jesus himself said, "Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest." Perhaps that invitation is felt most the moment we open the church door. We do not need to have polished prayers. We simply come as we are. Sometimes the greatest prayer is simply sitting quietly in God's presence, allowing the stillness to bless us.

Our churches are always here as a place of welcome, prayer, and peace. Whether you come to a service or an event, or to sit in silence, or simply to pause for a few moments in a busy day; everyone is always welcome.

Blessings,

The staff team.
