Consultation on the next Bishop of Chichester

The consultation on the appointment of the next Bishop of Chichester is still open (until 26th May). The Diocese of Chichester would like to hear from as many people as possible, at tinyurl.com/next-bishop, it only take a few minutes to complete!

We need a new bishop and you can help...

What can I do?

Have your say about the next Bishop of Chichester by completing a short online survey at the following link:

tinyurl.com/next-bishop

You can also access it via the QR Code below:

It will take only a few minutes to complete, and it is open until 26th May 2026. We welcome responses from everyone.

Why do we need a new Bishop?

Bishop Martin retires at the end of May 2026, and as a diocesan family we are beginning the search for his successor. Find out more about the process for appointing our next bishop at www.chichester.anglican.org/vacancy-in-see/

What is a Bishop?

The Bishop is often seen as the chief pastor or shepherd, and this image helps to explain the role of the Bishop – to both lead and look after the Church in their diocese (the geographical area of responsibility for a Bishop).

The Bishop is called to lead and teach, and also to perform certain important tasks, such as ordaining the Church's ministers (priests and deacons), licensing others to carry out different types of ministry on behalf of the Church, and confirming new Christians. As 'chief pastor' the Bishop has a key role to play in the decision-making, leadership and governance of the Church – both locally and as part of the wider Church of England.

Thank you for contributing!

Paper copies and a QR link are available in the churches along with a copy of the poster and this prayer the Diocese are sharing for the season.

A prayer for Vacancy in See

We begin this journey of discernment in prayer, and we will keep praying. We invite all members of the diocese to join with us in using this special prayer:

Almighty God,
giver of every good gift:
We thank you for the faithful ministry of Bishop Martin.
As we seek a new bishop to serve our
household of faith,
send your Holy Spirit to deepen our trust in you,
and to guide all those who will discern
the person you are calling;
that we may know, love, and follow
Jesus, today and always
Amen.

Request from St Mary's school

St Mary's School in Hartfield has been selected for one of the blue coin boxes in Tesco at the Tesco Express in Forest Row and the big store in Crowborough.

So, if you do shop in Tesco please support the school and make sure you get your blue coins and pop them in the St Mary's School container found in-store. Depending on the number of coins the school will receive either £1500, £1000 or £500, so the more the coins you can pop in the in-store container the better.
