NOTICES

ELECTORAL ROLL

The new electoral roll list is on display at the back of church. This is open for regular worshippers and all who live within the Parish boundaries.

Being on the Roll enables you to participate in the annual meetings and stand for office on the PCC.

If you are not on the list, we want you to be!

There are forms to be completed on the cross aisle and at the back of church.

Fabulous Claire Mangriotti is stepping down as

ELECTORAL ROLL OFFICER.

She has done this for many years and we are very grateful to her and thank her. We now need to find a new officer. Please speak to either Tish, Claire or Lotwina if you are interested.

It would be great to elect a new

Officer at the APCM

on 17 May.

ROYAL MARSDEN MARCH

We would still love some more volunteers

- the more the merrier!

TODAY, SUNDAY 10 MAY

between 10am – 4pm.

This year, we are especially cheering on Bill Petch, a faithful member of our 8am congregation, who quietly serves our church in so many ways behind the scenes.

Do consider sponsoring him if you are able.

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK

Christian Aid Week begins on today, 10th May and there will be a church collection as usual. Envelopes are in church and donations can be returned over the next two Sundays There is information at the back of church about this year's focus on supporting urban gardens in Nairobi.

This project helps people to produce vegetables in restricted spaces giving a boost to their very limited incomes. There are also some daily devotional booklets to help in supporting the Week in prayer.

APCM

The Annual Parish Meeting is on

Sunday 17 May

at 11.15am in church.

At that meeting we will update our Electoral Roll. This is a list of everyone at Christ Church.

Copies of the Annual Report and Financial Statements are available on the cross aisle. Please help yourself.

DONATIONS

If you would like to donate using our card reader at the cross aisle, you will see that there are two options, one is for a donation to the Church, and the other option is for special services (which means the specific charity that we might be collecting for in a given week), so that way, when the statement comes in, we are able to differentiate between the two.

This week's readings

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, 'Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, "To an unknown god." What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him – though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For "In him we live and move and have our being"; as even some of your own poets have said, "For we too are his offspring." Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.'

Acts 17.22–31

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.'

John 14.15–21

SUNDAY 10 MAY 2026
SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Collect
Risen Christ, by the lakeside you renewed your call to your disciples:
help your Church to obey your command and draw the nations
to the fire of your love,
to the glory of God the Father.
Amen

Post Communion
God our Father, whose Son Jesus Christ
gives the water of eternal life:
may we thirst for you,
the spring of life and source of goodness,
through him who is alive and reigns,
now and for ever. Amen

Green / World Prayer
Father of Creation,
turn your face to us. Strengthen us, so that we may embody and enact your mercy and justice to a dying world.
Amen
