From Jane Skinner

One of the objects of Archbishop Sarah Mullally's trip to visit the Pope must have been to secure his support for 'Thy Kingdom Come' and show the importance for this period for all Christians together. You can watch Pope Leo's message on this link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ljSMLrXyRj4> We expect this year's booklet to be inspiring so make sure you get your copy at church this week. It's not too late to start joining in by reading the daily reflections and identifying 5 people for whom you will pray until Pentecost. And mentioning prayer, please do pray for the next meeting of the Hartland Coast Mission Community Council meeting on Tuesday 26th May between 10 and 12 noon with Archdeacon Verena. This will be an important time to discern our next steps, especially regarding appointing our Team Minister. May we all experience the anointing of the Holy Spirit, empowering and inspiring us. Jane

Thy Kingdom Come 14th – 24th May. Call to prayer

Please send Tricia (as an attachment) any posters for your church events for circulation and loading on the website. email: hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com

Afterwards, it would be lovely to see some photos, which I can put up on the website. <https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/photo-gallery>

As ever, if you are sending me photos, PLEASE send them as .jpg or .png attachments for me to download, as it takes so much time to unravel them otherwise and this format is suitable for loading directly to the website without my having to play with them! Thank you, Tricia

Sunday 17th May - Bishop's Open Garden 2pm - 4.30pm

The Palace, Palace Gate, Exeter, EX1 1HY

£5 suggested donation (card payments welcome) in aid of the Devon Historic Churches Trust

The garden of the Bishop's Palace is one of the best kept secrets in Exeter. It covers three acres and is one of the most ancient in Devon. Bounded by the old Roman bank and city wall to the east and by the Cathedral to the west, it is a haven of peace in the middle of the city. Tea/coffee and cake available in the Palace Porch.
