Dear Friends

A reflective time of year. We move this month from Easter to Ascension to Pentecost and then on into the long green season when we should be sharing the word of God amongst our communities so as to attract new folk into our churches. When I was appointed as the Incumbent for the Four Rivers, there were several people who stepped forward to support me at a very difficult time and to them, and some others since, I will be always be grateful. I am confident that there are yet others who would also like to work with me and so I look forward to hearing from you. There is the question of unity among Christians and through working together we will understand each other better at the local level and focus upon the things we need to achieve. Who knows? There might be many people out there hiding their light who may have some fresh ideas!

I look forward to hearing from you! Prayers and blessings,

Revd Chrissie
