

Please Pray for

...those who have died, including: Anita Wolfe, Jean Buck, Michael Gill (funeral at Sherfield English at 11am Tues 30th June) and Pam Somerton
 ...those who are unwell, including: Debbie Arthur, Debbie Matthias, Jeanine Stewart, Lawrence Nash, Margaret Harden, Mavis Eastwood, Nick Flood (hospital), Nick Turner (home now), Pam Farquharson, Rae Tugwell, Richard (Liz Holton's brother) & Simon Bell

The mission of Jesus Christ was to set people free, once and for all, from the destructive powers of sin, darkness and death, so that they might come under the loving rule of God. Therefore, by following Jesus and belonging to his Church we too are freed to live in the service of God, and to discover ultimately – in the words of today's Collect – 'the glorious liberty of the children of God'.

Jeremiah 20:7-13 Psalm 69:8-11[12-17]18-20	Romans 6:1b-11	Matthew 10:24-39
Jeremiah faithfully delivers an unpopular message to Israel's leaders. When retribution follows, he temporarily loses his trust in God's protection.	Paul instructs the Christians in Rome that they must discard their old lives of sin to rise with Christ and walk in newness of life.	Jesus sends out the twelve with a clear message to all who would listen. This message would be unpopular, but the disciples were not to be afraid of delivering it.

An Introduction to the letter of Hebrews by Kenneth Padley (Canon Theologian)

"The writer to the Hebrews ranks among the most accomplished first generation Christian theologians. However modern readers can find Hebrews difficult to access, with its complex arguments and allusions to ancient Jewish culture. The talk will consider the original message and context of this biblical book, and unpack what it might say to us about Jesus, worship and our ultimate destiny." Tickets from:
