To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Everyone, therefore, who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven, but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.”

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

“Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, fear the one who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.”

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.”

Matthew 10: 27

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

Collect;

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God*GOSPEL READING; Matthew 10: 24-39

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

"A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!"

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer;

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Thought for the week

Hello friends,

This week, St Matthew's Gospel throws us a little bit of a curveball doesn't it? Jesus appears to be in a feisty, dramatic mood, but he has good reason. He's reminding us that to follow Him will be costly in some respects, but it will bring a transformation that we can only marvel at. And a new perspective that enables us to look at ourselves and others in a more wholesome light.

May this week's gospel reading ignite the flames of passion in our hearts so that we may be transformed by the renewal of our hearts and minds. Amen!

God bless you,
Revd Steve x

our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.*FIRST READING; Romans 6: 1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.
