SUNDAY'S READINGS

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person – though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Romans 5.1-8

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Matthew 9.35-10.8

VOLUNTEERS URGENTLY SOUGHT!

We DESPERATELY need more church members to commit to volunteering on a regular 4-weekly cycle [1] to be Welcomers and [2] to help serve tea and coffee, etc. after the Service on a Sunday! Rotas are set in advance, and can accommodate absences – which are not a problem – we just need to spread the load!

PLEASE think about offering YOUR service in this way – and be in touch with Fr David – who is currently organising the rotas.

When Fr David went to see Hortense Chester on her 101st birthday, she quite deservedly was having a lie-in! She was delighted to receive our prayerful wishes and a plant and card, and wished to greet all her friends at MPC.

We were delighted to welcome pilgrims on their Interfaith Walk around Morden and Mitcham, last Saturday - as they came to find out about the Christian Faith and how we express it on a day-to-day basis. Questions abounded!
