Matthew 9: 9 – 13, 18 - 26

THE COLLECT

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing
without you, grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping of your commandments
we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

THE GOSPEL

⁹ As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed him. ¹⁰ And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax-collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. ¹¹ When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, 'Why does your teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners?' ¹² But when he heard this, he said,
'Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. ¹³ Go and learn what this means, "I desire mercy, not sacrifice." For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.'

¹⁸ While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, 'My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.' ¹⁹ And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. ²⁰ Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, ²¹ for she said to herself, 'If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.' ²² Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, 'Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.' And instantly the woman was made well.

²³ When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute-players and the crowd making a commotion, ²⁴ he said, 'Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. ²⁵ But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. ²⁶ And the report of this spread throughout that district.

INTERCESSIONS

The Church:

Pray for those to be ordained deacons and priests this month, and for the parishes where they will serve. Pray for our parishes of St Clement and St Mary, that we may be fruitful and faithful in our worship and in our mission.

The World:

Give thanks for the beautiful world that God has given us. Pray that we all, as individuals and countries, will care for God's creation and reduce the harm that we do to our environment. Pray for people suffering from famine, floods, and excess heat due to the effects of climate change.

The King and Government:

Pray for King Charles, Queen Camilla and all the royal family. Pray for the government, and MPs and all who serve our country, that they will act with integrity and compassion..

Community:

Give thanks for the work of community health and care services in our town. Pray for the GPs, district nurses, mental health nurses, health visitors, home carers, social workers and all others who support the well-being of our neighbours.

The Sick:

We hold in God's care all those we know who are sick, including Alastair Moore, Annette Ulian, Eileen McKay, Elaine Blezzard, Beryl O'Neil, Alison Griffiths Christopher Brown, Emma Coulson, Michael Looby, Melinda Jones, Chris Jones, Janice Jones and Leila Grandemange. May they find healing in body, mind and spirit.

The Departed:

Pray for Carl Morsman, Brenda Kirk, Laurina Mills and all who have died recently and for the families and friends who grieve for them. May all who have gone before us rest in peace and rise in glory.

Anniversaries:

POST COMMUNION

Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in faith, build us up in hope, and make us grow in love; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
