NEWSLETTER FOR THE ROMAN ROAD PARISHES Pg2

STRAWBERRY TEA - COPFORD CHURCHYARD SUNDAY 12TH JULY 12.30 PM - 4PM

Strawberry Tea in the churchyard, with tours, talks and cricket. What better way to enjoy a summer's afternoon than tucking in to delicious locally grown strawberries, freshly baked home-made scones and cream in our glorious family friendly churchyard with a nice cuppa from our refreshments marquee?

We will be holding farming chats for those who would like to know a bit more about what's growing in the fields locally, and how it's being farmed. There will also be Church tours and local history talks about the colourful characters associated with the Church. There will be some family friendly activities and well-behaved four-legged furry friends are welcome too!

If you fancy something a little stronger with your tea, then the Cricket Club Bar will be open for the fiercely contested annual Village Cricket Club match with The Alma Pub side versus Copford Cricket Club from 1pm.

So a proper afternoon's entertainment awaits and we look forward to seeing you there.
