The Koinonia Group at St Peter's. What is the Koinonia Group?

The Koinonia Group are people who come together in fellowship to support each other as we explore our Faith. We learn from each other through discussion, reflection and sharing, creating a non-judgemental safe space where our differences are celebrated and our individual spiritual journeys are encouraged. If you would like to join our group, we meet fortnightly on a Friday, starting on June 19th at 7.30pm in the annexe at St Peter's, with different members of the group taking the lead each session. The sessions include prayer, sometimes hymns and presentations and discussions. You need only to bring an open mind, an open heart and maybe your Bible. The next session (June 19th) will be on identifying the key pillars of our faith, led by Tracy Groome.
