

From Tricia Oakley

I asked Stephen if Jane had made any arrangements for a message this week and he said he doubted that she would have time to write one, so I thought I could use the space to update you on the appointment process. The small group working on the Parish Profile has completed a first draft to send to the Archdeacon for comments. The document has been much reduced in size and a lot of material removed to make for easier reading. It was agreed that information about individual parishes can be found on the website and ACNY pages - so do make sure yours is up to date! All parishes will be sent a copy of the Profile at the end of this month so that it can be formally approved by the meeting of joint PCCs on July 13th (via Zoom). The advert will then be run from July 31st with a closing date for applications on September 11th. KEEP PRAYING ...

Please send Tricia (as an attachment) any posters for your church events for circulation and loading on the website. email: hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com

 Afterwards, it would be lovely to see some photos, which I can put up on the website. <https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/photo-gallery>

As ever, if you are sending me photos or posters, PLEASE send them as .jpg or .png attachments for me to download, as it takes so much time to unravel them otherwise and this format is suitable for loading directly to the website without my having to play with them! Thank you, Tricia

Welcombe Church Fete Saturday 27th June

Welcombe Village Hall from 2pm - 4.30pm (note change of venue)

There's something for every age:

Traditional country games, including tug of war, coconut shy, welly wanging, duck shoot, whack the rat, and Alasdair's madcap new Milk the Cow.

Children's fun, with an assault course, face painting, a treasure hunt and a painted pebble competition.

Refreshments to keep you going, from Devon cream teas and a Pimms bar to cakes, ice cream and locally pressed apple juice.

Local stalls selling plants and produce, crafts, second-hand books, and hand-drawn portraits by local artist Becky Cohen.

Live music from Ged Camille throughout the afternoon.

And don't slip away early, because we're saving the best for last. Jonathan Marshall's Free Spirits show brings Amadeus, a magnificent black Friesian horse, performing alongside falcons soaring at over 100mph. A breathtaking finale you won't forget.

Entry is just £1, and every ticket goes straight into our Free Prize Draw. Prizes include a £50 Biotaderm skincare voucher, vouchers for The Old Smithy Inn, Hartland Quay Hotel and Welcombe Pottery, and two tickets to the Milky Way Adventure Park.

Buy your ticket in advance online at <https://www.zeffy.com/en-GB/ticketing/st-nectans-fete> or from Helen Bence in the village. You can also pay on the gate on the day.

Gratitude and Wellbeing Walks

Look out for details of these regular Wednesday afternoon walks (poster on website) which will begin in July, starting and ending (with tea and cake!) at St. Nectan's Stoke
