

ST GEORGE, BICKLEY

NEWSLETTER 14th JUNE 2026

11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (2nd after Trinity)

CHORAL EVENSONG TO CELEBRATE OUR HALL USERS Today at 6pm, followed by Pimms and soft drinks in the garden. All welcome.

SUMMER FETE Saturday 20th June. We need: bottles; gifts & toiletries; books (less than 5 years old); small electricals; occasional hats/fascinators & handbags; Christmas items (NOT baubles, tinsel or lights); indoor & outdoor plants (deliver on 19th or 20th). All stallholders to meet at 10.30 on 19th in Hall. Volunteers needed to help stallholders pre-sort donations on 19th or before Fete on 20th.

MASS ON SATURDAY AT 8am, not 9.30, and there will be no Rosary, because of the Summer Fete.

OUR CELEBRATION ON TRINITY SUNDAY was a fitting and appropriate climax to Fr David's ministry here as an honorary assistant priest. He decided (and informed us) some time ago not to ask the bishop for his permission to officiate to be renewed after this year, and the diocese have now informed us that his permission has now lapsed, and so he cannot preside at our worship any longer, nor can we give him any official title. It remains the case that he and Diane are hugely valued members of the church family here at St George's, and we hope to continue to enjoy their wisdom for years to come.

WANTED - one or two people to take over the flower arranging in the church. You do not need to be a professional just interested and able to maintain the flowers.

ST JOHN'S SEVENOAKS celebrate their patronal festival at 4pm on Sunday 21st, bishop Luke will be preaching.

THANKS FOR YOUR GENEROSITY in supporting our Lent appeal for Tariro. We have just sent £1300 to them, and they have thanked us profusely.
