Queen of all the Saints' Ward, Bournemouth

There have been Members of the Society of Mary in Bournemouth for over eighty years. After forty-eight years at St Stephen's Church the Ward and Banner passed to St Ambrose Church, in 2014, with Fr Adrian Pearce as the Ward Superior and Henry Frier as Ward Secretary. On Henry's death, his widow, Dorothy, took over before passing the baton to Jean Rundell, who was succeeded by Sally Lloyd in 2026.

The Glastonbury Pilgrimage

Glastonbury Abbey, Magdalene Street, Glastonbury, Somerset, BA6 9EL.

A coach will be running from St Ambrose Church.

Volunteers to carry banners, thuribles, candles, etc., in the robed procession will be welcome.

The Memorare Prayer

Remember, most gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection,
implored your help or sought your intercession was left unaided.
Inspired with this confidence, I fly to you, Virgin of virgins, my Mother.
To you I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions,
but in your mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.

A reading from the Book of Exodus 19.2-8a

They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.'

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: 'Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.' Moses reported the words of the people to the Lord.

cf. v. 1 O be joy-ful in the Lord, O be joy-ful, all the earth.

Verse

S.L.

- 1 O be joyful in the Lord, | all the earth;
serve the | Lord with gladness
and come before his presence | with a song.
- 2 Know that the | Lord is God;
it is he that has made us and | we are his;
we are his people and the sheep | of his pasture.
- 3 Enter his gates | with thanksgiving
and his | courts with praise;
give thanks to him and | bless his name.
- 4 For the | Lord is gracious;
his steadfast love is | everlasting,
and his faithfulness endures from generation to | generation.

A Reading from the Epistle of St Paul the Apostle to the Romans 5.1-8

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew

9.35-10.8[9-23]

35 Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness.

8 Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

9 Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, 10 no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for labourers deserve their food. 11 Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. 12 As you enter the house, greet it. 13 If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. 15 Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgement than for that town.

16 'See, I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves; so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. 17 Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues; 18 and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the Gentiles. 19 When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say; for what you are to say will be given to you at that time; 20 for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. 21 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death; 22 and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. 23 When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next; for truly I tell you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.
