New Families Worker to support Becky

This month we welcome Kirsty Basram to work part-time alongside Becky in her role with children and families in the Cluster. Becky recently asked to reduce her hours, for personal reasons, and yet we wanted the valuable work she does to continue. So, with the help of the Diocese of Truro, who are legally the employers of our full-time staff, we recruited Kirsty to do the extra hours and work alongside Becky to ensure our outreach amongst children in schools and the families who come to various groups carries on and thrives.

Look out for Kirsty around the Cluster, as she finds her feet in our communities and throws herself into our activities! I know you will all make her feel welcome.

New Curate

At the end of this month we will be welcoming Jason Hoole-Jackson as our curate. He will be ordained alongside Esther on 26th June, 7:30pm at Truro Cathedral. As you know, this is a training post and Jason will have a lot to learn and many people to meet. Each curate is unique and brings their own gifts and skills to the role so we look forward to getting to know Jason, as much as he is looking forward to ministering among us. He is likely to be with us for around 3 years before he moves on to be a vicar, or similar, in another benefice.

Please do come to the ordination service if you are able, and please welcome Jason when you see him begin to appear at services and events.

Prayers of Intercession

In some of our churches we have a rota of people who kindly lead the prayers of intercession each week in the service. We would love to develop a list of people in every church who can offer this ministry.

Have you ever wondered whether you could be one of these people? If you have but have been hesitant because you're not sure where to start or unsure about standing at the front then please come along to find out more and explore whether this might be something you could do once in a while.

Leading Prayers – Taster session, Mon 6th July, 5pm at Treslothan Church

It is encouraging to all present when the prayers of the people come from the people who worship in that place. Please speak to Rev'd Rosheen or your churchwarden to find out more.

Trinity Sunday Benefice service at Holy Trinity

A huge thanks to Bishop James and indeed to all those who made today such a success.

Bishop James did us proud. He led a relaxed and enjoyable act of worship which was warmly received by all. He stayed with us for lunch and chatted freely with as many folk as he could get round.

And guess what? The recently retired Bishop of Repton and his wife stopped off to worship with us as they begin a Lands End to John O' Groats cycle ride. That doesn't happen every day!

Treslothan Wild Church – Transform your Mondays!

Wild Church is getting a reboot this summer with activities to suit all ages. Why not make Mondays your day to rest and reset with our God in Nature and come along to one of our new activities?

Starting on 22nd June we have:

Lunch Club – drop in between 12 and 1pm. There will be a range of refreshments on sale, or bring your own to picnic in the churchyard (or in the church if wet). All ages are welcome.

Saplings – stay and play in nature! Two sessions each week, 1-2.30pm for pre-school age (or homeschooled) and 3.30-4.30pm for primary aged.

Celtic Evening Prayer – a short celebration of God in our natural world, following the rhythm of the seasons and the spirit. 4.45-5pm, in the churchyard if fine, in the church if wet. All ages are welcome.

Wild Church is for everyone, whether they attend a traditional Sunday service at any of our churches or none, whether they want to chat and share or sit and contemplate.

Some of you will also feel you worship best through doing – if you are able to contribute in any way, please bring your gifts! Speak to Becky about contributing refreshments, or being a welcomer, or helping with the little ones, or whatever you feel you could bring.

Treslothan wild church saplings

We're thrilled to announce £244,947 support from Heritage Fund UK for our project: 'Saving Treslothan church, saving heritage through pilgrimage, history & nature'. This will allow us carry out external repairs, including re-roofing, to stop Treslothan Church from permanently closing. These initial works will start our journey towards this beautiful Grade II listed church in the woods being removed from the Heritage at Risk register. A huge thanks to National Lottery players and to Heritage Funding! As well as to all of you who have kept Treslothan's plight in your prayers and fundraised and campaigned to help keep it open. This collect feels particularly fitting.
