Christening's in All Saints

Our Rector has been very busy this year in addition to those for whom Wedding Banns have been read in advance of their big day, four sets this month, Revd Robert has baptised 13 new members of the Church of Christ.

Please do pray for those starting their Christian journey and equally for those starting their Married lives together. May their journey and lives be joyful.

Giant Bradley Day -12th July

You have submitted your selection of favourite hymns. Please do attend this service to help raise the volume.

Secondly volunteers are required in Church to welcome visitors explain the history and/or serve tea and coffees. Cakes are required if you are able to bake one. If you can assist, please names on the lists at the back of Church and thirdly we hope to run activities on the biggest animals in the world. A small planning group has meet.

"Join us to make a Giant Panda, the tallest bird in the world, the butterfly with the widest wingspan and the longest snake in the trees.

All ages welcome. You can also find the largest rodent in the world and take home a finger puppet of one of the smallest. 11am - 2.45pm

Please speak to Catherine Hammond if you would like to help and haven't already let her know.

Safeguarding.

The PCC want all those in Church to be and feel safe. If anyone has any concerns, please do bring them to the attention of the Safeguarding Team. Details of contacts are on the Safeguarding poster in the Church.

Freewill Offer

During the next two months the PCC will have to determine its offer to the Diocese for the next year and indications for a further two years. A number of leaflets are available in Church. We would ask you to read them. Any questions do ask please.

The Fifth Sunday after Trinity

Green

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Romans 7: 15-25a

I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good. But in fact it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me. For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do. Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me. So I find it to be a law that when I want to do what is good, evil lies close at hand. For I delight in the law of God in my inmost self, but I see in my members another law at war with the law of my mind, making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with my mind I am a slave to the law of God, but with my flesh I am a slave to the law of sin.

Matthew 11: 16-19, 25-end

‘But to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market-places and calling to one another, “We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.” For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, “He has a demon”; the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, “Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners!” Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.’

At that time Jesus said, ‘I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. ‘Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.’

Post Communion

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by your governance, that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord
