Rev Sarah Rock-Evans – Curate on placement in AVMC

My name is Sarah and I have been a curate for two years in the Sid Valley, ministering in All Saints Sidmouth and St Mary & St Peter in Salcombe Regis where I live with my family. As part of our training programme, curates are required to spend 4 weeks on placement in a different group of churches. I am blessed to have that opportunity here in AVMC, enabling me to experience some different traditions of church and forms of mission, as well as to pick the brains of the clergy team about what they do and why!

It has already been a joy to meet and talk with many in the churches here too, hearing about the ways you are serving and how the Lord is at work among you. I am grateful for the warmth of your welcome and the time I am being gifted here.

I have recently been reflecting on the huge variety that exists within our churches; there are endless ways of sharing the Good News, and what is appropriate in one place will be different to what works elsewhere. But within of that I am reminded that this is God's church, it is His mission we join in within and it is He who goes before us. So my prayer as I continue in my placement and ministry beyond is that I stay close to Jesus as my sustainer and redeemer. I'm reminded of words from Proverbs 3 "trust in the lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways submit to Him and He will make your paths straight."

I pray that you too will continue to grow in trusting Jesus whatever your circumstances, staying close to Him come what may. If we haven't yet met I hope we may do so in the coming weeks – I'd love to hear more of your story.

Gregorian Chanting

We are having our next practice of plainsong (or Gregorian Chanting) on Wednesday July 8th, at 2pm. We will meet once more in Axminster Church Rooms, close to the Minster.

Plainsong is a peaceful and gentle way of singing, and it can give us a time of peace, away from our everyday worries.

All are welcome to come along, learn simple chants and sing with us.
