Sung Eucharist

Rev'd Stewart Turner

Collect:

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Wisdom of Solomon

For neither is there any god besides you whose care is for all people, to whom you should prove that you have not judged unjustly, For your strength is the source of righteousness, and your sovereignty over all causes you to spare all.

For you show your strength when people doubt the completeness of your power, and you rebuke any insolence among those who know it.

Although you are sovereign in strength, you judge fairly, and with great forbearance you govern us, for you have power to act whenever you choose.

Through such works you have taught your people that the righteous must be kind, and you have filled your children with good hope, because you give repentance for sins.

A reading from St Paul's letter to the Romans

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh--for if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.

For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if we in fact suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God, for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its enslavement to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

We know that the whole creation has been groaning together as it suffers together the pains of labour, and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope, for who hopes for what one already sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

The Gospel of Matthew

He put before them another parable:
"The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field, but while everybody was asleep an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and then went away.

So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?' He answered, 'An enemy has done this.'

The slaves said to him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them?' But he replied, 'No, for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them.

Let both of them grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn."

Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field." He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.

Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live: may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

Thank you.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

Heavenly Father, we lift to You the people of Ukraine and Russia, their nations and leaders. As the God who provides, may Your help and mercy reach all who suffer. Amid the pain and conflict in the Middle East, guide the region's leaders and turn their hearts toward justice and peace.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

PRAYER FOR THOSE IN NEED

Heavenly Father,

We pray for the work of Community Money Advice across the UK but especially for the centres in Launceston and St Austell. CMA was founded almost 30 years ago and, alongside CAP, forms the largest face-to-face debt advice service in the UK. It helps people develop the financial competence and confidence they need to emerge from the shadow of debt into a place where there is 'freedom from debt and hope for the future'. We pray for Your blessing on all the trained volunteers who provide this support to those in the most need in our local communities. Amen.

Prayer by Sarah Vinson, Centre Manager at Launceston Money Advice Centre.

Prayers for Seventh Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to God, giver of all good gifts and our only defence against evil.

As we look for the full revelation of your glory, keep us faithful in work and worship...Defend the Church against the assaults of evil, to yield a good harvest from the planting of your holy word.

Root out all the evil things that mar the goodness of your world...Give the glorious liberty of the Spirit to those who live only for the demands of the flesh.

Shield our families from all assaults of evil...Bless our local community and keep it free from corruption...Guide with your Holy Spirit those who hold responsibility for health and environment.

Visit the afflicted with the assurance that their suffering will pass...Restore health to the damaged bodies and the troubled minds.

We pray for those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially:

Michael Newman, Sharron Simcock, Joan Wood, Pat Rogers, Joan Whitford, Philip Julian, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Billy Power and young Lilly.

Grant that the faithful departed may as joint heirs with Christ share in his glory...Have mercy on all souls in the time of judgement when good and evil shall be revealed together.

We remember the faithful departed, especially;

William Hussey Pr. (22nd), Cecil Williams, Herbert Carter (25th),

We pray for the souls of David Webber, David Kendall, and Alicia Julia Blanche Savage, who have recently departed this life. May they rest in peace and let light perpetual shine upon them.

May these our prayers, purified from fault and error, be heard through Jesus Christ, Son of Man and Lord of all.

Amen
