Methodist Minister's Reflection for July

July brings one of Torteval's best-loved traditions: the Scarecrow Festival. As familiar lanes and hedgerows are filled with colourful creations, residents and visitors alike are invited to enjoy the imagination, humour and hard work that make the event so special.

Many traditional hymns celebrate the gifts of creation, and as we enjoy "the joy of human love" and friendship amid the beauty of field and hedgerow, the festival echoes something of that spirit. It reminds us that communities flourish when people share their gifts, however great or small, and when neighbours take time to enjoy one another's company.

In a world that can often feel hurried and divided, such occasions are worth cherishing. They encourage us to look beyond ourselves, to appreciate the contributions of others, and to give thanks for the place we call home.

Whether you are making a scarecrow, following the trail, welcoming visitors, or simply enjoying the atmosphere, may this year's festival be a celebration of creativity, friendship and community spirit.

May it bring laughter, encouragement and a renewed appreciation of the many blessings found in living and working together.
