Dear friends,

Thank you so much for your generous gift collected across the Chellington team. I plan to use it to buy two coloured stoles that I will need as a priest. As my ordination day on 4th July at Christ Church Cathedral, Oxford, draws nearer, I feel both excited and, at times, a little anxious about God's calling and what will be expected of me. I begin my ordination retreat next Tuesday, which will give me quiet time for prayer.

Jacqueline and Peter have guided and mentored me greatly throughout my training. You are fortunate to have such dedicated and knowledgeable incumbents, and I will miss working with them.

Although we will not be moving house, I will be serving fully in the Oxford Diocese, working across several rural churches around Olney, including Lavendon and Emberton, where I will be curate for two or three years.

I think of everyone in my church family across the Chellington Team as dear friends, and I will miss worshipping alongside you. I have many special memories of visiting and preaching in your churches, and you will all remain in my prayers. I know Jacqueline and Peter will keep me updated on events across the Team.

With much love and God's blessings,
Lindsay

Collect

Almighty God, send down upon your Church the riches of your Spirit, and kindle in all who minister the gospel your countless gifts of grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Epistle - Romans 7:15-25a

I do not

¹⁵ I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. ¹⁶ Now if I do what I do not want, I agree that the law is good. ¹⁷ But in fact it is no longer I that do it, but sin dwells within me. ¹⁸ For I know that nothing good dwells within me, that is, in my flesh. I can will what is right, but I cannot do it. ¹⁹ For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do. ²⁰ Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.

²¹ So I find it to be a law that when I want to do what is good, evil lies close at hand. ²² For I delight in the law of God in my utmost self, ²³ but I see in my members another law at war within the law of my mind, making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. ²⁴ Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from the body of death? ²⁵ Thanks be to God, through Jesus Christ our Lord!

This is the word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Gospel - Matthew 11: 16-19, 25-end

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

¹⁶ ‘But to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market-places and calling to one another,

¹⁷ “We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.”

¹⁸ For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, “He has a demon”; ¹⁹ the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, “Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners!” Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.’

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, ‘I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; ²⁶ yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. ²⁷ All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. ²⁸ ‘Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.

²⁹ Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

³⁰ For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ.

Post Communion

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by your governance, that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
