Second Sunday after Trinity Sunday 14th June 2026 Sung Eucharist Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of Exodus

They journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain.

Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the Israelites: 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.

Now, therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. 'These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.'

So Moses went, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him.

The people all answered as one, "Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do."

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God.

And not only that, but we also boast in our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person--though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die.

But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

The Gospel of Matthew

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness.

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest."

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness.

These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Do not take a road leading to gentiles, and do not enter a Samaritan town, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick; raise the dead; cleanse those with a skin disease; cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff, for labourers deserve their food.

Whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. As you enter the house, greet it. If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that house or town. Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

"I am sending you out like sheep into the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. Beware of them, for they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues, and you will be dragged before governors and kings because of me, as a testimony to them and the gentiles.

When they hand you over, do not worry about how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you at that time, for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. Sibling will betray sibling to death and a father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death, and you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

When they persecute you in this town, flee to the next, for truly I tell you, you will not have finished going through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes."

Post Communion Prayer:

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth
until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

Heavenly Father, we lift to You the people of Ukraine and Russia, their nations and leaders. As the God who provides, may Your help and mercy reach all who suffer. Amid the pain and conflict in the Middle East, guide the region's leaders and turn their hearts toward justice and peace.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: INCLUSIVITY IN THE CHURCH

Father, You created a world of staggering diversity. Encourage us, in our daily lives to cherish difference, to be curious, and seek ways of understanding one another. Help us not to be fearful of those who are different from us but open our minds to Your desire for all of humanity to live in relationship with You. Give us strength and wisdom to stand with those facing persecution and discrimination, remembering Jesus died to save everyone, not only those like us. In Your Name we pray. Amen.

Ministry Development and Inclusion Officer*

In the Anglican Communion:

2nd Sunday after Trinity - Church of the Province of South East Asia

Prayers for 2nd Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray for the Church entrusted to the Disciples and the world into which they were sent.

As Jesus called the twelve to be disciples, make all members of the Church faithful followers in the way that he taught...Strengthen the hope and the love that belong to Christian people.

By the Holy Spirit, bring the radiance of your love into the hearts of all who do not know you...Make the Gospel known to those who wonder as lost sheep in the world.

Open our eyes to recognise the needs of others who come close to us...As we go on our way, fill us with the desire to speak the good news of his Kingdom.

We pray for the sick, especially:

Michael Newman, Sharron Simcock, Joan Wood, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Billy Power and young Lilly.

Relieve and comfort those who suffer from any kind of sickness...Empower those who care for them.... Give new hope to those who have lost it through distress of body and mind.

As the living receive your divine compassion in their suffering, grant mercy to those who have died and gather them into your eternal Kingdom.

We remember the faithful departed;
Lillian Bull, Vyvyan Webber, Bill Bradbrooke, Margaret Hedley (14th), Elizabeth Charman (15th), Frederick Webber, Edith Fairbrother, Dennis Newman (16th), Kenneth Buller, Bernard Coombes (17th),

Called to labour for the Lord, we pray that all we do and say may be truly in his name. Amen.
