① Did you know?

Tisha B'av (תשעה באב) is a day of mourning in the Jewish calendar because of the huge number of historical tragedies which have occurred on or near it. These include two separate destructions of the Temple in Jerusalem; the Roman annihilation of the Bar Kokhba revolt in 70CE; the expulsion of Jews from Britain in 1290; and the formal approval of the "Final Solution" in 1942.
