Feast & Fayre

A very big thank you to everyone who helped and supported Sonia, Bev, Felicity and Robin make last weekend's events at St Peter and St Paul's Church such a great success.

Despite the heat, we welcomed many visitors—some enjoying the cooler space, but also coming to admire the wonderful flower arrangements and enjoy the entertainment.

With the refreshments, stalls and raffle, it looks as though we raised just over £2,700 for Parish funds, which is a very welcome boost.

The raffle prize winners are as follows:

1 st prize, £150 voucher	ticket 1331	John Musson
2 nd prize, £100 voucher	ticket 510	Sarah Peggall
3 rd prize, £50 voucher	ticket 1504	Pam Worrall

Eco Pause for thought

We think this week about food storage, where one of the most ubiquitous forms of single use plastic is Clingfilm (various brands are available).

- If storing food in the fridge, rather than using film, put the food in a lidded box, or simply cover the bowl with a plate.
- If storing in the freezer, wash and re-use the plastic bags which so often come with bread and use these to wrap the food.
- If wanting to cover food which has been put out in advance on the table, simply use a tea-towel

When in the supermarket or a café, try to avoid goods which come wrapped in clingfilm; tell the staff why you are rejecting these.
