Preaching

Collect:

Almighty God,
who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself: help us to proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may be drawn to you; through him who was lifted up on the cross, and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah

O LORD, you know; remember me and visit me, and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors. In your forbearance do not take me away; know that on your account I suffer insult.

Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart, for I am called by your name, O LORD, God of hosts.

I did not sit in the company of merrymakers, nor did I rejoice; under the weight of your hand I sat alone, for you had filled me with indignation.

Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail.

Therefore thus says the LORD: If you turn back, I will take you back, and you shall stand before me. If you utter what is precious and not what is worthless, you shall serve as my mouth.

It is they who will turn to you, not you who will turn to them.

And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you, but they shall not prevail over you, for I am with you to save you and deliver you, says the LORD. I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil; hold fast to what is good; Love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal; be ardent in spirit; serve the Lord.

Rejoice in hope; be patient in afflictions, persevere in prayer.
Contribute to the needs of the saints; pursue hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them.

Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be arrogant, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are.

Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says the Lord."

Instead, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink, for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

The Gospel of Matthew

From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes and be killed and on the third day be raised.

And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you."
But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me, for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any wish to come after me, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? "For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done.

Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Post Communion Prayer

God our creator,
you feed your children with the true manna, the living bread from heaven: let this holy food sustain us through our earthly pilgrimage until we come to that place where hunger and thirst are no more; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Julie and I would like to thank every one for the kind messages and the lovely gift of the rose plant on the occasion of our Golden wedding anniversary.

It was very special for both of us to be at St. Gluvias, the church where we were married 50 years ago, to give thanks to God for those years and to celebrate this special occasion with you our friends and family.

Rev'd Stewart Turner

I am going into hospital on the 15th Aug for replacement knee surgery, so sadly I won't be around for a few weeks.

A huge THANK YOU to everyone who supported our Summer Projects, including the Free Summer Holiday Club and Open Church Project. Your time, generosity and encouragement helped make them a great success.

We couldn't have done it without you!

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

Heavenly Father, we lift to You the people of Ukraine and Russia, their nations and leaders. As the God who provides, may Your help and mercy reach all who suffer. Amid the pain and conflict in the Middle East, guide the region's leaders and turn their hearts toward justice and peace.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

CREATIONTIDE Creator God,
We pray for the living waters of the land: garden ponds, creeks, rivers, and their abundant life, resounding cascades, sparkling streams and lakes. We pray for the living waters of the air: swirling mists and quenching rains, blanketing fogs, hail, sleet and swirling snows. We pray for the living waters of the seas: the oceans deep, crashing surf, rock pools and beach. Help us to protect these sacred watery places and rejoice in the flowing spirit that connect us all. Amen.

Prayer by Dr Sharon Willoughby, Diocesan Environment Officer.

13th Sunday after Trinity - The Church in the Province of the West Indies.

Prayers for 13th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray for the Church of Christ, and for his reign over all the world.

Confirm your faithful people in the peace and the harmony that is your will for them...May the Church never fail to proclaim the Cross of Christ, the salvation of the world.

Give to all people the hope in place of despair, patience in the place of unrest, love in place of anger...
Enlighten with the truth of the Gospel those whose desire is only for the things of this world.

Give us true peace in our homes and in our work...Reconcile with your healing power all disputes and hostility among us...Let no selfish desires damage our relationships with others.

Have mercy on those who feel they are overcome by evil and have lost their way...Bring them to see that in their affliction they are following the steps of Jesus.

We pray for those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially:
Michael Newman, Sharron Simcock, Joan Wood, Pat Rogers, Joan Whitford, Philip Julian, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Billy Power and young Lilly.

Receive into your gracious care those who have followed the way of the Cross to the end...Save, even at the last, souls in peril from corruption by this world.

We remember the faithful departed, especially:
Frank Blamey (30th), Winnifred Webber, Michael Thomas (4th).

Trusting in the Cross of Christ our Saviour, we pray in his name. Amen.
