Twelfth Sunday after Trinity Sunday 23rd August 2026 Sung Eucharist Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah

Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the LORD. Look to the rock from which you were hewn and to the quarry from which you were dug.

Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah, who bore you, for he was but one when I called him, but I blessed him and made him many.

For the LORD will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

Listen to me, my people, and give heed to me, my nation, for a teaching will go out from me and my justice for a light to the peoples.

I will bring near my deliverance swiftly; my salvation has gone out, and my arms will rule the peoples; the coastlands wait for me, and for my arm they hope.

Lift up your eyes to the heavens and look at the earth beneath, for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and those who live on it will die like gnats, but my salvation will be forever, and my deliverance will never be ended.

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, on the basis of God's mercy, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your reasonable act of worship.

Do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of the minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God--what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.

For as in one body we have many members and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another.

We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the encourager, in encouragement; the giver, in sincerity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

The Gospel of Matthew

Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" And they said, "Some say John the Baptist but others Elijah and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah!
For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you but my Father in heaven.

And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."

Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Post Communion Prayer

God of all mercy, in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

Heavenly Father, we lift to You the people of Ukraine and Russia, their nations and leaders. As the God who provides, may Your help and mercy reach all who suffer. Amid the pain and conflict in the Middle East, guide the region's leaders and turn their hearts toward justice and peace.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

PRAYER FOR FARMERS Loving God, we pray for our farmers. In the face of rising costs, uncertain weather and the often solitary work of tending fields and livestock, be their strength. We also ask You nurture bonds of fellowship and support within their communities. Bless their daily rhythm of milking, feeding, planting and harvesting that provides our food, and support them in their dedicated stewardship of the land and animals. Help us, who depend on their work, to value it fairly by choosing local produce and paying a just price. May we all share in the harvest with gratitude and justice. Amen.

Prayer by The Revd Karsten Wedgewood

In the Anglican Communion:

12th Sunday after Trinity - The Church of the Province of West Africa.

Prayers for 12th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray for the Church which Christ has built for the world which has saved.

Preserve your Church in strength and stability, by your promise that no evil shall prevail against it...Make its members zealous in their callings, to work in all things according to your will.

Give to all people the desire to work together for good...As they recognise their calling, may each come to know Christ as the Son of God.

Bless us in our daily work and bless those who work with us...Use in your service the abilities of all who live and work in this community ...Grant wisdom and discernment to those who are called to special responsibility.

Strengthen with hope those who think themselves of no worth...Give them light to understand their part in your purpose and grace to fulfil it.

We pray for those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially:
Michael Newman, Sharron Simcock, Joan Wood, Pat Rogers, Joan Whitford, Philip Julian, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Billy Power and young Lilly.

We commend those who have died in the faith of Christ, true to the Church which he built...Keep us constant in the same faith now and at the last.

We remember the faithful departed, especially; Bert Window (22nd), William Boucher (23rd), Marion Green (25th), June Furlonger, Mary Pearce (26th), Grace Williams (27th), Bill Dunstan, Harry Thompson (28th), Mary Rendle, Leslie Osborne (29th).

Confessing Christ as the Son of God, we pray in his name. Amen.
