Sunday 13 September Parish Mass 3 PM

On fraternal correction :

Jesus says 'Where two or three meet in my name, I will be there with them' - words we hear in today's Gospel. We are meeting in the Lord's name. Indeed, we are meeting at his command. Hence, we are confident that he is with us. Let's begin the Mass by making ourselves present to him. Christ binds us together as a community. Lord, you are the vine, we are the branches, you let us see God's work in the world, and you unite us to yourself and make our lives fruitful.

REFLECTION : Harden not your heart

'O that today you would listen to his voice.

Harden not your hearts.'

From a spiritual point of view, hardness of heart is one of the worst things that can happen to anyone.

To adopt a hard hearted attitude is to maim oneself.

A hard heart can't feel, can't respond, can't love.

A hard heart can't experience joy.

A hard heart is a closed heart.

A hard heart is a barren heart.

A soft heart, on the other hand, is a blessing.

A soft heart can receive and can respond.

It can be saddened but it also can be deliriously happy.

Softened by the rain of God's grace, and warmed by the sun of his love, the human heart
can be turned from a desert into a garden.
