Jane's Thought for the Week

Concentrate on your hands and feet, then read:-

Christ has
No body now on earth but yours;
No hands but yours;
No feet but yours;
Yours are the eyes
Through which Christ's compassion
Is to look out to the world;
Yours are the feet
With which he is to go about doing good;
Yours are the hands
With which he is to bless people now.

Prayer of St. Teresa of Avila

As a point of information, St. Nectan's choir will be singing David Ogden's version of this at the Songs of Praise next Sunday, which is to be led by Bishop Moira.

Do join us at 11am and, if you are able to stay, bring a little something for the Bring and Share lunch that will follow.

This will be a light affair – a walkabout, rather than a sit-down meal.

Church pages on the website

<https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/visit-us>

Please will you check your page and let me know of (and send me) any amendments or additions you would like. Our Parish Profile does not include a dedicated page for each church, as in the past. Instead, prospective candidates will be directed to the website.

Coffee mornings in All Hallows Wednesdays 10.30am-midday. Home-made cake.

Gratitude and Wellbeing Walks – every Wednesday

Come and enjoy a leisurely stroll through Hartland's coastal landscape. Take time to observe, appreciate and give thanks for the beauty of nature. Finish off with tea and cake at St. Nectan's Church.

Meet in the car park at 2pm.

Details of the Foundations course that starts in October in Barnstaple may be found on the website. If you can think of anyone particularly suited, Nigel Price is encouraging you to make a personal approach.

Teas in Church at St Nectan's Stoke

If you have family or visitors staying between now and mid-September, do let them know that they can find a warm welcome (in a cool space!) with tea, coffee or squash and a selection of lovely, home-made cakes on most weekday afternoons between 2pm and 5pm in the magnificent parish church of Hartland.
