Ninth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 2nd August 2026
Sung Eucharist
Rev'd Stewart Turner

Collect:

Almighty God,
who sent your Holy Spirit to be the life and light of your Church: open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit in love and joy and peace; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah Hear, everyone who thirsts; come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread and your earnings for that which does not satisfy?

Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David.

See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. Now you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

I am speaking the truth in Christ--I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit--

I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own brothers and sisters, my own flesh and blood.

They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Christ, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen

The Gospel of Matthew

Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns.

When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion for them and cured their sick.

When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves."

Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me."

Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and blessed and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.

And all ate and were filled, and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full.
And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Post Communion Prayer

Holy Father, who gathered us here around the table of your Son to share this meal with the whole household of God: in that new world where you reveal the fullness of your peace, gather people of every race and language to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

Heavenly Father, we lift to You the people of Ukraine and Russia, their nations and leaders. As the God who provides, may Your help and mercy reach all who suffer. Amid the pain and conflict in the Middle East, guide the region's leaders and turn their hearts toward justice and peace.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: PRAYER FOR WELLBEING

Dear Lord, we thank you for this season of warmth and light, a time when many are able to rest, travel, and enjoy moments of peace and renewal. We pray for those who are on holiday, that their time may be filled with joy, refreshment, and happy memories. We also lift up those who are unable to take a break, those facing illness, loneliness, or difficult circumstances. May they feel Your presence especially near, bringing them comfort, strength, and a deep sense of peace. Amen.

Prayer by Rebecca St Ledger-Renfree, HR Coordinator at Diocese of Truro.

Jacqueline Evans –
Monday 3 Aug at 1pm

Prayers for the 9th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray to the God, the bountiful Giver, for the needs of the Church and for all people.

We give thanks for the grace that always exceeds what we can hope or ask...As we are fed by word and sacrament, make us strong in your service.

Feed the spirit of hunger of the world where many are lost in desert places, far from their true home...Come to those who know you only partially and bring them into the perfect light.

Show us the way to relieve the needs that lie close to us...Take our small offering and make them great in your service.

May the compassion of Christ still prevail to heal the sick and feed the hungry, through the divine love that never fails.

We pray for those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially:
Michael Newman, Sharron Simcock, Joan Wood, Pat Rogers, Joan Whitford, Philip Julian, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Billy Power and young Lilly.

Grant refreshment, light and peace to those who no longer need the bread of this world...Receive them into their eternal home. We remember the faithful departed, especially;
Hilda Minson (2nd), John Cooper, Frederick Watson, (4th), Marie Greenway (6th), Arthur Welburn (7th), Emily Sheppard, Charles Wasley, Nancy Williamson (8th).

We pray for the souls of Jacqueline Evans and Alicia Julia Blanche Savage, who have recently departed this life. May they rest in peace and let light perpetual shine upon them.

Strengthened by our spiritual food, we pray with confidence in the generous love of Christ. Amen.
