Sung Eucharist

Rev'd Emma Durose

Collect:

*O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity:
mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen*

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the LORD: Maintain justice, and do what is right, for soon my salvation will come and my deliverance be revealed.

And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, all who keep the Sabbath, and do not profane it, and hold fast my covenant—these I will bring to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Thus says the Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel: I will gather others to them besides those already gathered.

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin.

God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.

Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so also they have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they also may now receive mercy.

For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that he may be merciful to all.

The Gospel of Matthew

Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon.

Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon."

But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, "Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us." He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me." He answered, "It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table."

Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that moment.

Post Communion Prayer

*Lord of all mercy, we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace:
by our communion keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel and preserve us from all sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

Heavenly Father, we lift to You the people of Ukraine and Russia, their nations and leaders. As the God who provides, may Your help and mercy reach all who suffer. Amid the pain and conflict in the Middle East, guide the region's leaders and turn their hearts toward justice and peace.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

PRAYER FOR READERS Faithful God, we give thanks for the ministry of Readers in Your Church: for their love of Scripture, their call to preach, and their dedication to teaching and pastoral care. Strengthen them in wisdom, humility, and joy. Deepen their prayer, enrich their study, and guide them as they help Your people to grow in faith and discipleship. Bless all who are training, newly licensed, or long established in this ministry. May Your Spirit uphold them in every place they serve, that Christ may be known, trusted, and followed. Amen.

Prayer by Jim Seth, Chaplain to Readers (Licensed Lay Ministers).

Prayers for the 11th Sunday after Trinity

To God who loves the world that has made, let us pray for ourselves and for all people.

As you have given to your people the gift of faith, make that faith powerful as a witness to your love...Let your Church be constant in prayer, never doubting your power to save.

Gather into your fold the lost sheep of this world, the unbelievers, the hard of heart...Hear those who desire to know you but cannot speak their need.

Guide and guard our families and all other with whom we share our lives...Bless the homes where there is sickness or any other trouble.

We pray for those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially:
Michael Newman, Sharron Simcock, Joan Wood, Pat Rogers, Joan Whitford, Philip Julian, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Billy Power and young Lilly.

Bring healing to children who are ill or in pain...Comfort and strengthen parents who are anxious for their children...Give peace to all unquiet minds and troubled spirits.

Give peace to the dead who had no peace in their dying...Have compassion on those who died without faith, that they may receive your mercy.

We remember the faithful departed, especially;
May Whitford (15th), Maureen Sanders (20th) & Desmond Jenking (21st).

Fed at the Table of the Lord, we ask hm to accept our faith and pardon our unworthiness. Amen.
