Reading from the Old Testament

Isaiah 55: verses 1 to 5

An Invitation to Abundant Life

Hear, everyone who thirsts; come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread and your earnings for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. Now you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Matthew 14: verses 13 to 21

Feeding the Five Thousand

Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.” They replied, “We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.” And he said, “Bring them here to me.” Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and blessed and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled, and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ.

Reading from the New Testament

Romans 9: verses 1 to 5

God’s Election of Israel

I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit— I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own brothers and sisters, my own flesh and blood. They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Christ, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

Notices

Refreshments – do join us for a cuppa, biscuit and chat after the service at the back of church. Thanks to everyone helping in July but help needed in August.

Governance - members of Kirk Langley PCC attended a meeting at Holy Trinity Church, Matlock Bath on July 13th to listen to various people talk about how sharing one PCC worked in their parishes. It was an interesting evening with many different formats given. The overriding message was that one size does not fit all and that you move slowly forwards, listening carefully as you go and probably not as much compromise is needed as was maybe thought.

Kirk Langley Fete – The fete on Saturday 11th July was blessed with beautiful weather and was once again a great success! We are delighted to announce that the St Michael's stalls raised a grand total of £441.47! Thank you to all those who donated and to those who volunteered to help on the day.
