Eleventh Sunday after Trinity

The Lord waits to be gracious to you; he will rise up to show mercy to you; for the Lord is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him.

This Week's Readings

Isaiah 56:1,6-8

Psalm 67

Romans 11:1-2a,29-32

Matthew 15:10-28

Psalm 67

R Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.

May God be merciful to us and bless us,
show us the light of his countenance and come to us.

Let your ways be known upon earth,
your saving health among all nations. R

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you judge the peoples with equity
and guide all the nations upon earth. R

The earth has brought forth her increase;
may God, our own God, give us his blessing.

May God give us his blessing, and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him. R

Collect

O God, you declare your almighty power
most chiefly in showing mercy and pity:
mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace,
that we, running the way of your commandments,

may receive your gracious promises,
and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
