Jane's Thought for the Week

Remember God takes responsibility for his workmanship and he hasn't finished with us yet.

Ann Lewin wrote in her book Candles and Kingfishers:

God's work of art.

That's me?

Then beauty must lie

In the eye of the Beholder.

I feel more like

One of those statues

Michaelangelo left

Half emerging

From the marble block;

Full of potential,

On the verge of life,

But prisoned still

By circumstances and

Fear

Yet part of me is free-

And you are still creating,

Bringing to life

The promise that is here.

Sometimes by

Hammer blows

Which jar my being,

Sometimes by tender strokes half felt

Which waken me to Life.

Church pages on the website

<https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/visit-us>

Please will you check your page and let me know of (and send me) any amendments or additions you would like. Our Parish Profile does not include a dedicated page for each church, as in the past. Instead, prospective candidates will be directed to the website.

CONFIRMATION AND HOLY COMMUNION

AT ALL SAINTS CLOVELLY

Please come along at 4pm on Sunday 16th to support the candidates – particularly our local ones, Emily Turpin and Frank Watson.

Your prayers for them would be appreciated.

(my apologies for the confusion last week – I had conflated this with Bishop Moira's visit in September which is on a Wednesday!)

Coffee mornings in All Hallows Wednesdays
10.30am-midday. Home-made cake.

The Gathering. Sunday 16th August
6.30pm until 8.30pm at Methodist Chapel.
Bring and share supper.

Gratitude and Wellbeing Walks – every Wednesday

Come and enjoy a leisurely stroll through Hartland's coastal landscape. Take time to observe, appreciate and give thanks for the beauty of nature. Finish off with tea and cake at St. Nectan's Church.

Meet in the car park at 2pm.

Details of the Foundations course that starts in October in Barnstaple may be found on the website. If you can think of anyone particularly suited, Nigel Price is encouraging you to make a personal approach.

Teas in Church at St Nectan's Stoke

If you have family or visitors staying between now and mid-September, do let them know that they can find a warm welcome (in a cool space!) with tea, coffee or squash and a selection of lovely, home-made cakes on most weekday afternoons between 2pm and 5pm in the magnificent parish church of Hartland.
