Barnburgh Dovecote Open Day

An opportunity to visit a unique 16th Century dovecote in the picturesque South Yorkshire village of Barnburgh

Saturday 12th September
11am - 4pm

- Barnburgh Dovecote will be open to the public on Saturday 12th September 2026. This is a unique opportunity to see a fine example of an original octagonal limestone dovecote which is exceptionally well preserved.
- Entrance to the dovecote is free and everyone is welcome.
- This opportunity only comes around once a year. The dovecote is a historic scheduled monument and Grade II* listed building. Standing in the grounds of the old Barnburgh Hall which was demolished in 1968, the dovecote dates back to around the 16th century and is now funded and maintained by the residents of Barnburgh Hall Gardens.
- Photographs illustrating the fascinating history of the Dovecote, Barnburgh Hall, Barnburgh Colliery and around the village will be on display.
- The dovecote will be open from 11.00 - 16.00 on Saturday 12th September. It is situated at the entrance to Barnburgh Hall Gardens, just off Hall Street in Barnburgh (DN43 7DS).

Please take the opportunity to come along and see this lovely building, part of the historic heritage of the village of Barnburgh, once home to the family of Saint Thomas More, Chancellor during the reign of Henry VIII, famously tried for treason and executed in 1535 for his refusal to accept the King's split from the Roman Catholic Church.
