What do we do when the whole world seems to be falling apart around us?

We turn on the news and see wars, suffering, political arguments, climate concerns and people struggling with the pressures of everyday life. Closer to home, we may know people who are worried about money, relationships, health or simply what the future might bring.

Sometimes it can all feel overwhelming. We may find ourselves asking, “What can I possibly do about any of it?”

The Bible gives us a simple, but not always easy, answer: trust in God’s faithfulness.

That doesn’t mean pretending everything is fine or ignoring the suffering around us. It means remembering that God is still God when life feels uncertain. His love has not changed. His promises have not changed. And we don’t have to carry the weight of the whole world on our shoulders.

So, what can we do?

Pray. Bring the things that frighten or worry us to God. Pray for those caught up in conflict, for our leaders, for those who are suffering, and for the people closest to us.

Do what you can. We may not be able to solve the world's problems, but we can make a difference where we are. Check on a neighbour. Listen to someone who is struggling. Offer practical help. Be generous. Choose kindness when it would be easier to complain.

And sometimes, switch off the news! We need to know what is happening, but we don't need to absorb every crisis, every hour of every day.

Finally, look for signs of hope. They are often much closer than we think—a helping hand, a shared meal, a kind word, people working together, someone choosing forgiveness.

We may not be able to change the whole world, but we can help make our little corner of it a better place.

And through it all, we can trust that God is faithful.

Love and prayers

We love weddings at Holy Trinity!

Are you looking for somewhere to get married? How about our beautiful little church on the village green? Did you know that it costs the same to get married here as it does at a registry office or venue, and we have some wonderful pubs in the village to hold your reception at.

We also love marriage blessings, renewal of vows, and baptisms (christenings). Recently we even combined a wedding and baptism of their baby, a wonderful celebration!

If you are interested in a wedding, marriage blessing, renewal of vows, or baptism (christening), for yourself or your child we'd love to help, please contact our Vicar, Sally, for a chat about the how, what, when, where and why of these events at Holy Trinity.

When someone you love dies, you don't have to face it alone. We offer compassionate, personalised services led by our vicar Sally — in church, at a graveside, or at a crematorium. Whether you have a strong faith, a gentle spirituality, or none at all, we can help you. We'll help you honour your loved one, celebrate their life, and say goodbye in a way that feels right for you — with care, dignity, and kindness every step of the way.

We also offer memorial and thanksgiving services at Holy Trinity. These are often held after a direct cremation, giving families time to plan a separate, meaningful celebration of life. We will work with you to create a service that truly reflects your loved one and the memories you hold dear.

If you'd like to talk, we're here. You can contact us to ask questions, explore options, or simply begin a conversation.

HOLY TRINITY CHURCH CHURCHYARD REGULATIONS

Keeping our churchyard tidy and safe for all.

For most people churchyards are places of quiet contemplation and remembering. Our aim is to ensure that our churchyard should be both peaceful, kept tidy and mown for the benefit of everyone.

The churchyard around Holy Trinity Church, Hertford Heath is closed for burials (open for burial of ashes). The grounds are maintained by gardeners employed by Hertford Heath Parish Council (HHPC). Holy Trinity Parochial Church Council (HTPCC) works with HHPC in maintaining the safety and appearance of the churchyard.

Neither Hertford Heath Parish Council (HHPC) nor Holy Trinity Parochial Church Council (HTPCC) is responsible for maintaining memorials in the churchyard, the memorial stone/grave/tablet upkeep is the responsibility of the deceased's family. Checks are carried out from time to time to ensure that memorials have not become hazardous. If it appears that a memorial is in a dangerous condition, HTPCC may decide that it should be laid on the ground to avoid accidents.

Our churchyard is different from a civil (local authority) cemetery. In our churchyard the burial plots are not 'owned' by the family. In a Church of England churchyard, families own a memorial stone or tablet, but not the ground in which it is set. The plots remain part of the churchyard and as such are all subject to the Diocese of St Albans Churchyard Regulations.

Memorial stones and tablets can only be installed by a qualified funeral director or stone mason under the regulations laid out in the Diocese of St Albans Churchyard Regulations and via the faculty process. Our Churchwardens can help you with this, as can your Funeral Director.

Memorial Garden

In the Memorial Garden the regulations allow for a 12 inch/30cm square memorial tablet which should be laid flush with the ground, and which may incorporate a vase for flowers.

The only permitted items on or around a memorial tablet, in the Memorial Garden at Holy Trinity Churchyard are:

1. a stone/granite memorial vase. This should be placed on the memorial tablet. Please note plastic versions of these vases are NOT permitted.
2. OR one ceramic bowl of plants. The bowl should be no larger than 8 inches/20cm in diameter, and when containing plants should stand no higher than 12 inches/30cm – see photo. This should be placed on the memorial tablet.

3. OR one plastic vase, see photo. This should be placed above the memorial tablet

Please note that you can only choose one of these options, not all three.

These items are placed at your own risk. HTPCC, HHPC or the gardeners will not accept responsibility for any damage or breakages due to strimming the grass and keeping the area well maintained.

Loose flower vases and containers made of glass or plastic are not permitted because they are vulnerable to accidental damage which causes understandable distress to the family, and they can cause difficulties for mowing or strimming. Sometimes pieces of broken container can cause injury. We encourage people to have flowers in containers at home as a reminder of a loved one.

Graves, and memorial tablets in the Memorial Garden, need to be kept clear of obstructions so that the grass can be cut. Seasonal wreathes may be laid on any grave or memorial tablet but must be removed as soon as they appear to be dead. It should also be noted that free-standing features such as toys, pictures, mementos, statues, plastic/silk flowers, solar lights etc. are NOT allowed. Chippings, gravel, paving stones, or kerbs may NOT be placed on or around any grave or any area set aside for cremated remains in the churchyard. No trees, plants or shrubs may be planted anywhere in the churchyard. Wooden marker crosses are designed to mark a burial plot until a permanent memorial is added. They should then be removed and may be taken home by the family or disposed of by the funeral director or monumental mason.

HTPCC tidy the Churchyard on the last weekend of each month, and at their discretion, will remove any non-permitted items placed in the churchyard. They will be carefully placed by the side of the church for collection; retained for a three-month period, after that time they will be disposed of.

It is for our local community, that we preserve the atmosphere of tranquillity and natural, living landscape of our churchyard which itself offers the beauty of creation as a comfort to all who enter. Please help us to preserve this character, which has endured for many centuries. and which we have a duty to pass on to the next generation.

HTPCC are dedicated to maintaining the churchyard for the benefit of families and other visitors. These Regulations are intended to create and maintain a place of peace, dignity, and respect for the departed.
