God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love: grant that your people may be fervent in the fellowship of the gospel that, always abiding in you, they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING Genesis 50:15-21

A reading from the book of Genesis.

Realising that their father was dead, Joseph's brothers said, "What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong that we did to him?" So they approached Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this instruction before he died, 'Say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the crime of your brothers and the wrong they did in harming you.' Now therefore please forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. Then his brothers also wept, fell down before him, and said, "We are here as your slaves." But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid! Am I in the place of God? Even though you intended to do harm to me, God intended it for good, in order to preserve a numerous people, as he is doing today. So have no fear; I myself will provide for you and your little ones." In this way he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

Or Exodus 14:19-end

PSALM Psalm 103:1-13

R The Lord is full of compassion and mercy, [slow to anger and of great kindness].

[Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits. R

He forgives all your sins and heals all your infirmities; He redeems your life from the grave and crowns you with mercy and loving-kindness; R

He satisfies you with good things, and your youth is renewed like an eagle's.

The Lord executes righteousness and judgement for all who are oppressed.

He made his ways known to Moses and his works to the children of Israel. R]

The Lord is full of compassion and mercy,
slow to anger and of great kindness.
He will not always accuse us, nor will he keep his anger for ever.
He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor rewarded us according to our wickedness. R

For as the heavens are high above the earth, so is his mercy great upon those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our sins from us.
As a father cares for his children, so does the Lord care for those who fear him. R

SECOND READING Romans 14:1-12

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarrelling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgement on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgement on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand. Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds.
Those who observe the day, observe it in honour of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honour of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honour of the Lord and give thanks to God. We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. Why do you pass judgement on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgement seat of God. For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God." So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

GOSPEL Matthew 18:21-35

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Peter came and said to Jesus, "Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive?
As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times. For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made.
So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow-slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, 'Pay what you owe.' Then his fellow-slave fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow-slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked slave!
I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow-slave, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

POST COMMUNION

Keep, O Lord, your Church, with your perpetual mercy; and, because without you our human frailty cannot but fall, keep us ever by your help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

September 13th 2026 – 15th SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY ~ Parish of the Harwich Peninsula Peninsula Post: the latest issue is now out. Contributions are welcome. We hope to include some selections from magazines found in a cupboard at All Saints in the next issue.

Harvest Thanksgiving: a separate sheet with information about the Harvest services and the charity we are supporting is available in all our buildings. However, you are welcome to bring gifts for the Salvation Army Foodbank in addition or instead to the services, but the collections will go to support Bridgeway Colchester.

Special Service: we will trial a new service on the 4th Sunday of the month at 5pm called Worship and the Word for the parish at All Saints. It will be non-liturgical but will include a confession, absolution, profession of faith and the Lord's prayer. The hymns will mainly be traditional, but may, sometimes introduce one newer one. It is hoped that this will be an opportunity for the congregations to explore how God is at work in our churches, among his people. The first one will be on September 27th when Sioux Thorpe will share how God spoke to her recently whilst on retreat and she hopes that this will encourage others to do the share in future months. The first theme will be 'God the provider', exploring the story of Elisha a miraculous provision of oil for a widow and her sons who had nothing left after the death of her husband. There will always be a focus on scripture and an opportunity to worship using different ways to experience God's presence. In September it will include the opportunity to be anointed. It is hoped that as the services go on the congregation will take part by bringing their ideas of how they will develop in the future.

Kingdom over nation: a series of 8 discussions from Churches Together in Harwich at the Roman Catholic Church on Fronks Road, continuing each Wednesday until the end of October at 7pm. This is a response to the growth of Christian nationalism and so very topical. Each week into October. No charge.

PCC Secretary: our Church Council needs a Secretary to take the minutes of the meeting. We meet about 6 times a year in the evening. The Secretary need not be a member of the PCC but serves in this essential ministry. If you think you have the skills, please contact the Rector as soon as possible.

Course in Christian Studies: the 2-year course is now in the last stretch to the end of the year. Meeting each Thursday evening in term time, it has been led by John Wallace, Liz McLeod, the Rev. Stephen Northfield and the Rev. Canon Ian Smith. Do cheer on Janet Goodall, Becky Wallace, George Creek and Lorraine Harvey from the parish and those from outside as they head towards the finish line.

Retreat: Christ, Coast and Concrete – this coming Saturday based at St Nicholas and the Esplanade Hall.

Parish Office: please note Liz McLeod our Administrator is on holiday Monday, Wednesday and Friday this week and the office and phone will not be staffed.

Team Rector: Ian will be unavailable for a few days 11th – 16th September while attending a friends 60th birthday and the Festival of Preaching at the University of Cambridge.

Bible Study: the monthly group meet on Wednesday 30th at 7pm in All Saints church and the Fryatt Room.

Confirmation: do plan to support the deanery wide service at St Nicholas on Sunday 4th October at 5pm with Bishop Roger and support our own candidates as well as those from the deanery.

Baptised in September: Alfie Parker Gary Potten and Teddie William Gary Potten (twins); Alina Rose Dawson-Dragisic

Married in September: Kieran Aiden Hutchence and Rebecca Lesley Wallace

Departed in August/September: Valerie (Val) Vincent; Ann Root; Maureen Hilda Tarran; Christine Britton; Sheila Grant; Beryl Sylvia Gibbons; Penelope Diane Neal
