Our Generosity Week draws to a close next weekend on Saturday & Sunday 3rd & 4th October.

On Saturday there will be a special concert in All Hallows Church on The Market Square with the Northampton based Cantare Singers at 7pm and this concert will be to raise funds for our nominated charity Kelly's Heroes.

Music will be light and enjoyable for every taste.

Please do support this concert as we want to raise as much as possible for this worthy local cause. The charity works alongside families who have suffered through suicide. Tickets are just £10 (under 16's free) from Tony. Please tell all your friends to come along.

Refreshments will also be available.
