From Jane Skinner

Here we are at the end of August with a few days to be in summer holiday mode before a new term starts. Please pray for someone to be looking at the advert placed in the Church Times for the final time and considering responding to our invitation, that the right person will say 'Yes'. Make some time to be creative - visit the Art Exhibition at Buckland Brewer or the Flower Festival at Hartland. Perhaps sit with a picture or view that you are particularly fond of. Recall that you are in the presence of Almighty God who is your Heavenly Father. Place yourself in the embrace of his love and let your eyes roam around your chosen picture/scene until your attention is caught in some way. Linger with this aspect letting all it represents speak to your situation, as you pray around whatever themes emerge. Give thanks for the summer and offer yourself for all that is about to come. God bless you. Jane

Church pages on the website

<https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/visit-us>

Please will you check your page and let me know of (and send me) any amendments or additions you would like. Our Parish Profile does not include a dedicated page for each church, as in the past. Instead, prospective candidates will be directed to the website.

Gratitude and Wellbeing Walks – every Wednesday

Come and enjoy a leisurely stroll through Hartland's coastal landscape. Take time to observe, appreciate and give thanks for the beauty of nature. Finish off with tea and cake at St. Nectan's Church.

Meet in the car park at 2pm.

CAP is currently looking to fill two roles: a paid position for two days a week on a self-employed basis and a one-day volunteer role.

For more information, see poster or check out their website: <https://trinitybarnstaple.org.uk/cap>

Teas in Church at St Nectan's Stoke

If you have family or visitors staying between now and mid-September, do let them know that they can find a warm welcome (in a cool space!) with tea, coffee or squash and a selection of lovely, home-made cakes on most weekday afternoons between 2pm and 5pm in the magnificent parish church of Hartland.

Coffee mornings in All Hallows Wednesdays 10.30am-midday. Home-made cake.
