First Reading

Isaiah 55. 12-end

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace;
the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress;
instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle;
and it shall be to the Lord for a memorial, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Second Reading

Colossians 1. 15-20

A Reading from Paul's Letter to the Colossians.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers – all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything.

For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Gospel

Matthew 8. 23-27

Hear the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. A gale arose on the lake, so great that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep. And they went and woke him up, saying, 'Lord, save us! We are perishing!' And he said to them, 'Why are you afraid, you of little faith?' Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a dead calm.
They were amazed, saying, 'What sort of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?'

Revd Liz's Pilgrimage

A very big thank you to everyone who has donated in support of Revd Liz's Pilgrimage.
We have exceeded our target by raising £1,100.00, to be shared equally between church funds and Dr Kershaw's Hospice.

I'm sure everyone will join us in saying very well done to Revd Liz and congratulate her on achieving her goal.
