Today's Collect, quoting from a prayer of St Augustine (a North African bishop who died in 430 AD), refers to the relationship all human beings have with their Creator, who has 'made us for yourself'. However, when we become disconnected from God our hearts grow 'restless' and seek satisfaction in the wrong things. Pray that we will grow in the knowledge of God's love and find our eternal home in him.

Readings for 27th September – Trinity 17

Ezekiel 18:1-4,25-end Psalm 25:1-8	Philippians 2:1-13	Matthew 21:23-32
The prophet tells the people that God's ways are righteous. They must take responsibility for their sins as individuals in the present time, rather than blaming previous generations.	The famous hymn speaks of how Christ gave up his divine power and glory, humbling himself to walk among human beings. Yet he remains the one to whom every knee will bend.	The chief priests question Jesus' authority as he teaches in the Temple. His parable suggests that such critics are unworthy to be members of the kingdom of God.
