2 Corinthians 13:11-12

CLERGY THOUGHTS - Friendships, Kindnesses, Joys and Tears ...

Moses stood on Mount Nebo, looking across the Jordan to the land God had promised. After forty years of wandering in the wilderness, the people were finally about to cross the river and enter the promised land. Yet it would be Joshua who would lead them across the Jordan and continue the people's journey with God.

With retirement imminent, I find myself identifying with Moses. We too have travelled through wilderness times together. There have been seasons of uncertainty and frustration, yes — but the wilderness is also the place of testing, where we learn to depend on the faithfulness of God and discover again that He is trustworthy.

Thanks to the work already done by our PCCs, and with a strong team of lay and ordained leaders, you are well prepared for the next stage in West Wight's journey with God. Parish structures matter, but at the heart of our calling is simply this: to love God and to love our neighbour. Together we have sought to live that calling through prayer, worship, and service to one another and to our community. I am deeply proud of our clergy team, our lay leaders, and our admin team. We are grateful for the prayers and support of so many — far too many to name individually.

As David and I prepare to leave West Wight and return to the North Island, we go knowing that, by grace, God has been at work among us. We have had the privilege of living in one of the most beautiful places in the UK. To step outside one's door and be overcome by the beauty and wonder of creation — and to draw close to God in that beauty — has been a gift. We will treasure the friendships made, the kindnesses received, the joys shared, and the tears shed.

I must finish this letter, though I have already stretched Julia's deadline while trying to find the right words with which to say goodbye and thank you. In the end, I can do no better than to close with the prayer of the apostle Paul for the church in Ephesus.

I pray that out of his [God's] glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge – that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

CURATES' CORNER

Somehow, we have reached autumn! From the boiling hot days of summer, suddenly the leaves are changing colour for a different reason, and the days are getting shorter. Jumpers are being searched for as the evenings grow cooler, and it seems that summer has disappeared almost overnight. At school, we are busily preparing for our Harvest Festival. The students are currently planning to bring in calves, mini tractors, some geese, a sheep dog and some sheep! We may have to rein them in a little and focus them on what Harvest is really about: thanking God for all his gifts to us.

However, I am going to hark back to the summer, and particularly to the week I spent at New Wine. New Wine Festival is a six-day event, with around 14,000 people joining from across the UK and beyond for a week of worship, teaching, ministry and community. It is a time to encounter God afresh through the Holy Spirit, grow deeper in faith, and make lasting memories together as church family.

It was truly wonderful to stop everything I was doing and spend a whole week focussing on God. We attended the morning celebration – at the very civilised time of 10.30! – where we sang praises to God and studied the Bible with Amy Orr Ewing. In the evening, we gathered again for celebration, worship and teaching, listening to a range of speakers over the week, including Bishop Ruth Bushyager, Pete Greig and Danielle Strickland.

And the afternoons? Well, they were a little more relaxed! We went to seminars, spent time with friends, read books or, occasionally, had a nap! We camped, although people stay in Airbnb's or hotels. Camping is not compulsory!!

I cannot imagine my summer without attending New Wine. More importantly, I cannot imagine it without that opportunity to stop, put everything else to one side and simply spend time with God. In the busyness of everyday life, it is so easy for our relationship with God to become squeezed into whatever time is left over. New Wine gives me the opportunity to put God right at the centre again.

So why am I telling you all this? Because the super early bird rate for New Wine 2027 is only available until 30 September 2026. After that, the early bird rate runs until 31 January 2027. If you think you might be interested, do have a look at the New Wine website to find out more: New Wine Festival 2027.

So, as we give thanks to God for all that he has given us this Harvest, perhaps we can also think about what we give back to him. Why not consider spending some quality time with God next summer? You might even discover that a week of worship, Bible teaching, friendship – and perhaps the occasional nap – is just what you need!

CELTIC ENCOUNTERS

NO CELTIC ENCOUNTERS IN OCTOBER - Celtic Encounters Will return in November

SEPTEMBER Toilet Twinning - an Update

In September, our Celtic Encounter theme was Streams and Springs-Living Water which coincides with Creationtide, an annual season in the church calendar which has a focus on creation and the environment. As well as our prayers for those in drought ridden parts of the world, those who came to the 3 venues kindly donated money to 'toilet twin'. Donations totalled £120 and we have been able to twin with 2 toilets meaning communities in Uganda and South Sudan can have a toilet! Thank you...

NOVEMBER CELTIC ENCOUNTERS are on the theme of Pilgrims and Exiles.

From November our 'Porchfield Celtic Encounter' is moving to Shalfleet Village Hall.

Time change - Please note the 3 pm starts with the clocks change.

Venues:

Shalfleet Village Hall, Wednesday, 4th November at 3 pm

CELTIC ENCOUNTER AUTUMN LANDSCAPES RETREAT DAY

on Thursday, 15th October 10-3.30pm Shalfleet Village Hall.

LAST CHANCE ... There is still time to register for the Celtic Encounter Retreat Day - you are invited to take a spiritual journey through three autumn landscapes-the night sky, orchard and field considering how they speak to us of the nature of God and our relationship with Him. There will be times for quiet contemplation in the morning session followed by a light lunch. In the afternoon there will be opportunities to engage in creative activity, a short reflective walk or simply to enjoy the quiet of the church nearby or fellowship with others. The day will conclude with Holy Communion.

All welcome. There is no charge for the Retreat Day but donations towards the cost of lunch welcome. Booking is however required. 20 places are offered. For further information and to book contact Ali or Gill or email Julia at fyparishes@gmail.com or tel: 07930 670772.
