Weekly Benefice Bulletin

Sunday 27th September 2026

Message from the Rector

Ow sos ger,

Autumn is truly upon us! Isn't it wonderful to walk through the lanes, or peer out through the windows to see the leaves changing colour, for the sun peeping out through cloudy or blue skies. It's the sort of weather we are used to with intermittent rain. But even as I write I am aware that many across the world are struggling with the effects of El Nino (a strange term for such an impactful weather system). We know ourselves what it is like to live with floods, to be evacuated and to live with the unease of not knowing how things will pan out. So many people are simply praying for survival right now. Let us add our prayers perhaps using one of the creation prayers of this season, reminding ourselves that all of creation groans under the weight of exploitation caused by our insatiable desire for more. As we reflect during the creationtide/harvest let us consider our own impact on the environment and the impact we make on one another seen and unseen.

For your prayers:

- For those affected: Pray for immediate safety, physical shelter, warmth, and provisions for families caught in danger.
- For the grieving: Ask that God will comfort all who mourn the loss of loved ones, homes, or livelihoods and grant them courage as they look to what the future will hold
- For those who help: pray for protection, endurance, courage, and wisdom for emergency workers, medical teams, and all volunteers putting themselves at risk to help those in need.

Gras ha kres,
Caroline

Going the Distance @ Elim Church, Redruth

6 October 2026

Could your relationship be on autopilot? It doesn't have to stay that way – discover ways to slow down and reconnect.

Drifting apart is one of the biggest reasons why many couples decide to call it quits. But there are simple ways to prioritise each other and stop just going through the motions.

Going the Distance is a practical, down-to-earth evening for couples – a rare chance to stop, take stock and invest in your relationship.

With genuine honesty and plenty of humour, Philip Jinadu and Cathy Madavan will share practical ideas of how to communicate well, deepen connection and intentionally set the course for your relationship.

This event will help you spot warning signs, avoid roadblocks and continue your journey together, for a vibrant and lasting marriage.

Generosity and Stewardship Matters

Financially Supporting our church

The Parish Giving Scheme is our preferred method of receiving regular giving within the churches of Probus, Ladock and Grampound. If you haven't already transferred from other forms of giving then do check out how it works through the link here or by contacting your treasurer.

Please do consider whether this is a good time to review your regular giving at the church, or perhaps you would like to plan for a future donation and leave a gift in your will. The Church of England has produced guidance on legacy giving which you can find here

Newsletter Submissions

Please send your items by 5pm on Tuesday 29th September at the latest to Matthew at bulletin@probus.church and make sure the subject line clearly indicates that it is a newsletter submission.

Thank you.
