Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity Sunday 6 September 2026 Sung Eucharist Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

Almighty God,
whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the book Ezekiel

So you, mortal, I have made a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me.

If I say to the wicked, "O wicked ones, you shall surely die," and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at your hand.

But if you warn the wicked to turn from their ways and they do not turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

Now you, mortal, say to the house of Israel: Thus you have said: "Our transgressions and our sins weigh upon us, and we waste away because of them; how then can we live?"

Say to them: As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked but that the wicked turn from their ways and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways, for why will you die, O house of Israel?

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Owe no one anything, except to love one another, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.

The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; you shall not murder; you shall not steal; you shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself."

Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Besides this, you know what time it is,
how it is already the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone; the day is near.

Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armour of light; let us walk decently as in the day, not in revelling and drunkenness, not in illicit sex and licentiousness, not in quarrelling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

The Gospel of Matthew

"If your brother and sister sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If you are listened to, you have regained that one.

But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

If that person refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church, and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a gentile and a tax collector.

Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven.

or where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them."

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God, the source of truth and love, keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, united in prayer and the breaking of bread, and one in joy and simplicity of heart, in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Heavenly Father, we lift to You the people of Ukraine and Russia, their nations and leaders. As the God who provides, may Your help and mercy reach all who suffer. Amid the pain and conflict in the Middle East, guide the region's leaders and turn their hearts toward justice and peace.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: PRAYER FOR SCHOOLS

Living, loving God, You are the source of life in all its fullness; the giver of wisdom, hope, and purpose. We thank you for our schools, where minds awaken, curiosity grows, and every child is valued. Bless teachers, leaders, staff, families, and all who serve in and around our schools with dedication and care. Strengthen them in challenge and gladden them in progress. May pupils flourish in body, mind, and spirit, knowing they are loved and capable. Shape compassionate, courageous, hopeful lives. Let our schools nurture community, character, and purpose, so today's seeds bear fruit for generations to come. In your love guide us always. Amen.

Prayer by Lee Moscato, Diocesan Director of Education.

Prayers for 14th Sunday after Trinity

Let us pray in love to God who loves all that he has made.

Let the whole Church be filled with the divine grace which comes where two or three are gathered together in your name... Bless your Christian people with unity to empower their prayers.

Rouse the world from the sloth of selfish and material concerns... Heal with the spirit of love the disputes that divide people and nations.

Bless our families, friends and neighbours with the spirit of reconciliation... Let your law be fulfilled among us in the world of love.

Come and relieve those who are caught in bitter litigation... Help the victims of injustice who suffer under loveless power.

We pray for those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially:
Sharron Simcock, Joan Wood, Pat Rogers, Joan Whitford, Roderick & Jackie Dare, and young Lilly.

We pray for those who have tried to follow the way of love and are now at rest... In the fullness of your love, give them perfect freedom.
