Almighty God,
whose only Son has opened for us
a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills
to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Psalm 119:33-40

R Give me understanding and I shall keep your law.

Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes,
and I shall keep it to the end.

Give me understanding and I shall keep your law;
I shall keep it with all my heart. R

Make me go in the path of your commandments,
for that is my desire.

Incline my heart to your decrees and not to unjust gain. R

Turn my eyes from watching what is worthless;
give me life in your ways.

Fulfil your promise to your servant,
which you make to those who fear you. R

Turn away the reproach which I dread,
because your judgements are good.
Behold, I long for your commandments;
in your righteousness preserve my life. R

Exploring Grief Thursdays in the Radley Room, St. George's.

We all experience grief in some form during our lives. The journey of healing requires time, patience and support. We will meet to explore what the psalms say about grief and how they can provide comfort and help us to express our emotions to our compassionate God who weeps with us, listens to our cries, and understands our pain. These gentle Bible studies will be encouraging and helpful at those moments in life when you find yourself confronted by grief, whether your own or that of someone you care about. Sessions are
