A Note about Benefice and Cluster Services

As you know, each benefice meets for a joint service when we have a fifth Sunday in the month. The location for these goes on a rotation, with each church taking it in turn to host. Worshipping together like this offers us all encouragement and reminds each church community that they are not the only Christians in the area —we are part of something bigger and can glimpse the Kingdom of God. We can celebrate what we have in common, we can be blessed by our differences and be uplifted by the singing of many more voices together!

We have, on special occasions, also met and worshipped together as a Cluster, such as my licensing at Crowan on St Crewenna's Feast Day in 2025 and at Camborne when our previous curate presided at communion for the first time following his priesting in 2023. These services have been very joyful and memorable. So much so that the Churchwardens have tried to find a reason for them to happen more than on an ad-hoc basis.

To that end, the idea is that we will continue to hold benefice services on a fifth Sunday but we will also hold Cluster services to celebrate when each of our churches has their Patronal Festival, which are nicely spread across the year.

-  Crowan Feast, Sunday nearest 2nd February (Crowan).
-  Trinity Sunday, Sunday after Pentecost in May/June (Penponds).
-  St Meriadoc's Feast, Sunday nearest 7th June (Camborne)*.
-  All Saints Day, Sunday nearest 1st November (Tuckingmill).
-  St John's Feast Day, Sunday nearest 27th December (Treslothan).

In 2027, the eagle eyed among you will note that two of these Cluster services fall on a fifth Sunday so we will meet as a cluster not a benefice that day. In addition, because of where Easter falls next year, Trinity Sunday and St Meriadoc's Sunday follow each other. In this instance the Cluster service at Camborne will be moved to the Sunday after our current curate is priested (most likely 28th June).

My prayer is that each church flourishes and can bless the parish where they are set. I also pray that each church can support and encourage each other by worshipping together five times a year because we have a shared mission to make God's love known in the world.

*St Martin's Feast Day is 11th November and it would not be appropriate to meet as a Cluster during Remembrance season.

October Coffee Morning at Camborne Church

Just a note to let all of you know that Camborne Church's latest coffee morning and sale on 26th September was one of the most successful ever, raising over £240 for church funds. Many thanks to all those of you who work to make these events a success. Donations are still welcome for October's coffee morning on 24th, which will be the last one of the year (our Christmas Fayre will replace November's). Cakes to sell, either on the cake stall or as refreshments from the kitchen, Fairtrade tea & coffee to replenish our stock, bric-a-brac for the stalls are all gratefully received.

Harvest Festival at Penponds

A huge thank you to all those who played any part in the preparation and decoration for this year's Harvest service and lunch. The building looked beautiful and the service was enjoyed by all. Young Louis and little George added to the family nature of the day and who doesn't love a Pasty Pete pasty ?!?!?

The generous gifts this year will be heading to the Food Bank early this week. Thanks to Alfie and Grace from Growing Church who arranged the gifts.

Works at Treslothan Church

A reminder that re-roofing and re-pointing works are taking place at Treslothan Church in October and throughout autumn.

The intention is for the Church to be available for use on Sundays wherever possible; in the week, the church and churchyard will be closed, to make sure the work can progress safely.

Wild Church rescheduled

Because of the remedial work taking place at Treslothan this month and throughout the autumn, Wild Church activities will take place on Sundays (when the contractors are aiming to make the church accessible to us) and not Mondays for the foreseeable future.

This is a space to explore physically and spiritually without worldly pressures. Rest and relax or get involved with nature, ask questions or stay quiet, get messy if you like (dress for the weather!). We have put together a list of themes for the next few weeks and will be in the church and churchyard with the mud kitchen, story circle, fire pit, sand pit, hammock and activities based on the theme of the week. Come and join us any time between 1:30 and 4pm

Upcoming themes:

- 4th October: St Francis, friend of nature
- 11th October: leaves
- 18th October: apple day
- 25th October: no groups at church for half term, family event light party this week (see poster)
- 1st November: All Souls, make wild church soul cakes
- 8th November: bulbs, holding all the DNA to become a flower next year
- 15th November: squirrels, gathering up stores for the winter
- 22nd November: hibernation, the need for rest
- 29th November: Advent, wreaths. Make an Advent wreath with candles that we can light each week

Many thanks to those who organised, staffed and attended our autumn concert at Camborne Church, featuring Holman Climax Male-voice Choir and Military Wives Choir, Julia Cockerham Harris and Alastair Taylor.

Thanks also to our sponsors, MJR Electricals, Kath's Plaice and R Pascoe & Sons. Special thanks to Jim Geach for all his hard work.

Over £900 was taken on the night, of which donations will be made to several charities as well as Camborne Church funds. In the words of one attendee, it was a 'wonderful evening, with wonderful voices and songs.'

Donations requested

Donations are sought by Camborne Church towards the cost of the candles for our Christmas candlelit services, Nine Lessons & Carols and Midnight Mass. Those who have attended know how spectacular the church looks with candles at every pew and in the chandelier, but the cost is significant – we estimate this year our order for candles for Christmas will be £150! Any donations towards this will be very gratefully received – please pass to the churchwardens, Treasurer or in a marked envelope in the collection plate. Many thanks for your support.

Francesca new hours

Francesca is taking some leave next week, so will not be in the office on Tuesday 20th or Thursday 22nd October (although will pick up emails and messages sporadically).

From the following week, my hours will change to include Monday morning rather than Wednesday morning. Office hours will remain the same – 10-12 Tuesday and Thursday, but I will be available by email and phone on Monday mornings. This has been decided after discussion with the churchwardens to hopefully lessen the gap between asking a question on Thursday evening and not hearing back until Tuesday morning!

Cornish Language services

For those of you who speak a little Cornish, or would like to, there are several Cornish services coming up:

- 18th October, 4pm at St Mary Magdalene's, Launceston – bilingual Cornish/English service.
- 1st November, 3pm on Zoom - Cornish language service for All Saints
- 15th November, 3pm at St Keverne Parish Church - bilingual service for the Feast of St Keverne

A big thank you (especially to Rev'd Jason) for the Pet Blessing service that took place on Sunday 4th October at Crowan Church, it looks like all everyone had a great time and behaved themselves!
