All Souls' Requiem, Sunday 1st November 6pm

All Souls' Day has always been an important part in the church year. The Celtic saints used to talk about 'thin' places, where the link between Heaven and Earth, between the living and those who no longer share our lives, seems closer than in other places.

The service begins at 6pm and it would be lovely to see you. If you could let us know you are planning to attend, please do so.

There is a tradition that we hold in love those whom we particularly remember as we read their names towards the end of the service. If you wish a particular name to be read, or want to attend, please do let the PCC Secretary know by either emailing her or posting it.

Her email address: clgainsford@hotmail.co.uk or to the address below.

Also, at this time, we take the opportunity from the previous year to update the Book of Remembrance. If you wish the names of a loved one to be recorded permanently in this book, would you please complete the slip below. The names from the Book of Remembrance for every day of the year are printed for the appropriate week in the Church Notice Sheet and those whose names are recorded are mentioned in our prayers on that day.

There is still the possibility of having a pew dedicated in memory of a loved one and a form is also attached, if you are interested.

We look forward to you being with us at this moving and memorable service.

Yours Sincerely Fr Andrew

Rector

Advent Quiet Day: A Balanced Life – "I wish!"

To confirm the date:

Saturday 5th December @ 10:00 am – 4:00 pm

Fr Andrew is leading this Quiet Day at Launde in December.

A Balanced life – “I wish!”

If this is your reaction, then please accept my invitation to you, to draw aside and have the chance to reset, to welcome Love into your heart, mind, soul and body.

Advent is a season that helps us prepare, ponder and pursue the things of God.

Treating ourselves is quite vogue, but how can we and how do we prepare for a life with God which is here today and not lost tomorrow?

Advent is that wonderful opportunity to map out and reimagine our life with God, a chance to harmonise our rhythm of life.

Rev. Andrew Hall – Parish Priest, Rector of Burbage with Aston Flamville and IME2 officer for the Leicester Diocese.

Andrew is a Spiritual director and Retreat leader, a contemplative soul, who likes gardening, reading and sports. “My heart is to be a ‘cure of souls’ as my priestly vocation implies, spending time with pilgrims is one of life’s greatest callings, and I am honoured that God has called me to this life.”

Quiet Day price: £46 includes lunch and coffee and tea throughout the day.

Why not think about extending your time at Launde by staying overnight after the event. Check for availability and a quote when you contact us.

To book please follow this link:

The Spire and Refectory Fund

We are now raising money for the Spire and Refectory Fund to carry out urgent work to the tower and to replace the partition between the north aisle and the refectory. Please use the following link to make a donation or speak to Fr Andrew, a Churchwarden or the Treasurer to help us raise funds for this vital work.

Entrance Hymn – God has spoken by his prophets

God has spoken-by his prophets, spoken his unchanging word;
each from age to age proclaiming God the one, the righteous Lord;
in the world's despair and turmoil
one firm anchor still holds fast:
God is king, his throne eternal,
God the first and God the last.

God has spoken-by Christ Jesus, Christ, the everlasting Son;
brightness of the Father's glory,
with the Father ever one:
spoken by the Word incarnate,
God, before all time began,
light of light, to earth descending,
Man, revealing God to man.

God is speaking-by his Spirit speaking to our hearts again;
in the age-long word expounding
God's own message, now as then.
Through the rise and fall of nations
one sure faith is standing fast:
God abides, his word unchanging,
God the first and God the last.

Offertory Hymn – Break thou the bread of life

Break now the bread of life, dear Lord, to me, as thou didst brake the bread beside the sea.
Beyond the sacred page I seek thee, Lord;
my spirit longs for thee, thou living Word.

Thou art the bread of life, O Lord, to me,
Thy holy word the truth that saveth me.
Give me to eat and live with thee above;
teach me to love thy truth, for thou art love.

O send thy Spirit Lord, now unto me, that he may touch my eyes and make me see.
Show me the truth concealed within thy Word,
and in thy book revealed I see thee, Lord.

Bless thou the bread of life to me, to me,
as thou didst bless the loaves by Galilee.
Then shall all bondage cease, all fetters fall;
and I shall find my peace, my All in all!

Communion Hymn – I cannot tell why he, whom angels worship

I cannot tell why He Whom angels worship
Should set His love upon the sons of men Or why as shepherd, He should seek the wand'ers To bring them back, they know not how or when But this I know: that He was born of Mary When Beth'hem's manger was His only home And that He lived at Nazareth and laboured And so the Saviour, Saviour of the world is come

I cannot tell how silently He suffered As with His peace He graced the place of tears Or His heart upon the cross was broken
The crown of pain to three and thirty years
But this I know: He heals the broken-hearted
And stays our sin and calms our lurking fear
And lifts the burden from the heavy laden
For yet the Saviour, Saviour of the world is here

I cannot tell how He will win the nations
How He will claim His earthly heritage
How satisfy the needs and aspirations
Of east and west, of sinner and of sage
But this I know: all flesh shall see His glory
And He shall reap the harvest He has sown
And some glad day His sun will shine in splendour When He, the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known

I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship
When at His bidding every storm is stilled
Or who can say how great the jubilation
When all the hearts of men with love are filled
But this I know: the skies will thrill with rapture
And myriad, myriad human voices sing
And earth to heaven and heaven to earth will answer At last the Saviour, Saviour of the world is king.

Final Hymn – NEH 486

We have a gospel to proclaim
Good news for men in all the earth;
The gospel of a Saviour's name:
We sing His glory, tell His worth.

Tell of His birth at Bethlehem,
Not in a royal house or hall
But in a stable dark and dim:
The Word made flesh, a light for all.

Tell of His death at Calvary,
Hated by those He came to save;
In lonely suffering on the cross
For all He loved His life He gave.

Tell of that glorious Easter morn:
Empty the tomb, for He was free.
He broke the power of death and hell
That we might share His victory.

Tell of His reign at God's right hand,
By all creation glorified;
He sends His Spirit on His Church
To live for Him, the Lamb who died.

Now we rejoice to name Him King:
Jesus is Lord of all the earth.
This gospel message we proclaim:
We sing His glory, tell His worth.

Sunday 25th October 2026 – Bible Sunday

Welcome to St Catherine's Church in Burbage. Loving, Living and Learning.

We are a loving Community. "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind" Matthew 22 verse 37

Collect Prayer for the Day

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Nehemiah 8 : 1 - 6, 8 – 12

all the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. The scribe Ezra stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand; and Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hash-baddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam on his left hand. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, 'Amen, Amen', lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, 'This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep.' For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, 'Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.' So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, 'Be quiet, for this day is holy; do not be grieved.' And all the people went their way to eat and drink and to send portions and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

Psalms 119 verses 9 to 16

Response: Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes.

How shall young people cleanse their way to keep themselves according to your word? With my whole heart have I sought you; O let me not go astray from your commandments. Response:

Your words have I hidden within my heart, that I should not sin against you. Blessed are you, O Lord; O teach me your statutes. Response:

With my lips have I been telling of all the judgements of your mouth. I have taken greater delight in the way of your testimonies than in all manner of riches. Response:

I will meditate on your commandments and contemplate your ways. My delight shall be in your statutes and I will not forget your word. Response:

Colossians 3 : 12 – 17

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Matthew 24 : 30 – 35

Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see "the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven" with power and great glory. And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. 'From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Post Communion Prayer

God of all grace, your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen
