From Jane Skinner

What a difference it makes when a funeral is a fulsome celebration of someone's life and faith in God. Woolsery has had a tough 6 months regarding funerals and we could have been dejected at the death of Loye Medd but Martin very much wanted a celebration of her energetic embracing of life, strength of character and belief. The church was full of family and friends who recalled playing together in the nearby schoolyard and connections sustained over the years. A stickler for accuracy and truth, Loye had a monumental memory for the detail of the lives of the community around her. It was a joy to sing 'Now the green blade riseth, from the buried grain, Wheat that in dark earth many days has lain; Love lives again, that with the dead has been: Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.' An Easter hymn, the words proclaim our hope in Jesus' resurrection; I hope you'll be able to find and read the whole hymn. May we daily choose to live fully, truthfully and boldly in every way we can with God's love energising us. Jane.

Please send Tricia (as an attachment) any posters for your church events for circulation and loading on the website. email: hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com

Afterwards, it would be lovely to see some photos, which I can put up on the website. <https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/photo-gallery>

As ever, if you are sending me photos or posters, PLEASE send them as .jpg or .png attachments for me to download, as it takes so much time to unravel them otherwise and this format is suitable for loading directly to the website without my having to play with them! Thank you, Tricia

Advent Course online

Bishop Mike is offering an online Advent course for any churches (or individuals) who would like to take part – hoping this will be particularly of interest for congregations unable to put their own course on or for those who can't get to such a group for one reason or another. Watch out for the links which will be shared soon in the Roots, Shoots & Fruits newsletter, on social media and such like.

The dates are 1st, 8th, 15th and 22nd December 7.30pm – 8.15pm

Advent orders – urgent, please read!

PLEASE check supplies on Sunday and send me your requests for Advent candles.

The churchwardens already received this request in an email,

but so far only one has responded!

If I don't hear anything, it will be up to you to sort yourselves out ...

Tricia x
