From Jane Skinner

Just had the comment made that some people don't like a person. I replied that we're all different and therefore nobody is going to be liked by everybody. What I ought to have added is that Jesus never mentioned liking anyone, we are commanded to love others - a much higher demand! So if there is someone you don't naturally like, try reminding yourself that instead you need to exercise your will power and choose to act with love towards them. Is that hypocritical? No! It's being obedient to Jesus' direction. Ask God to help you with his love for the person - help you see what God finds loveable in them. Then act upon it, with a smile. That way your love may grow as you create a larger and more caring attitude towards them. This is living supernaturally, in the power of Christ. Anyone can like the people they find likeable, it's Christians who overcome the barriers and love the unlovely. Because God first loved us. Jane

Please send Tricia (as an attachment) any posters for your church events for circulation and loading on the website. email: hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com

Afterwards, it would be lovely to see some photos, which I can put up on the website. <https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/photo-gallery>

As ever, if you are sending me photos, PLEASE send them as .jpg or .png attachments for me to download, as it takes so much time to unravel them otherwise and this format is suitable for loading directly to the website without my having to play with them! Thank you, Tricia

Service for the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed (All Souls)

This year's service will be held at St. Nectan's Hartland at 4pm on Sunday November 1st. The names of all those whose funerals have been conducted in our team in the last two years will be read out and there will be an opportunity to light a candle in their memory.

If you intend joining us and would like the name of a loved one added to the list, please let Tricia know by Monday 26th October.

Jane Hayes should be undergoing a hip replacement at Shepton Mallett on Monday 19th, so I am sure she would appreciate your prayers for a successful procedure and speedy recovery.
