This Week's Readings

Leviticus 19:1-2,15-18 Psalm 1
1 Thessalonians 2:1-8 Matthew 22:34-end

Collect

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Psalm 1

R Happy are they who trust in the Lord!

Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

Their delight is in the law of the Lord,
and they meditate on his law day and night. R

They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season,
with leaves that do not wither;
everything they do shall prosper. R

It is not so with the wicked:
they are like chaff which the wind blows away;

Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright
when judgement comes,
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
For the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked is doomed. R

Dipping Your Toe in the Old Testament - Saturday 7th November, in Kendal Parish Church vestry: 9.30am for 9.45am– finishing by 12noon. Many Christians find themselves struggling with parts of the Old Testament, so this time the theme will be Tricky Texts. How do we cope with the violence in the OT? Aren't there some contradictions? Should we see everything we are told in the OT as accurate history? How should we understand God working in the world?
